EDITORIAL
CHALLENGE 2016

The promotional products industry has too many interesting topics to justify addressing issues that are in one's own interest. However, what the upcoming PSI Trade Show has to offer goes beyond the self-interest of a chief editor of the PSI Journal. In point of fact, what is offered there is of valuable benefit to you in order to better master the challenges in 2016. Therefore I can only recommend that all readers look at the PSI Trade Show more intensively this time in order to adopt a sustainable and collaborative work process. In addition to all the products there, the trade show will also show what the PSI came up with in 2015 to support its members even more effectively and creatively in their daily work.

Manfred Schlösser

This year in the COMPETENCE AREA, the PSI is setting out to convey valuable knowledge for daily work in the company. The evolution towards a promotional products fashion show has succeeded, and now intelligent solutions for corporate life have been added. Any company that instructs an employee to focus entirely on the new COMPETENCE AREA at the PSI is certainly making the right decision. In just a short time, he can gain more useful and helpful ideas for his own company than anywhere else in the world.

2016 will certainly not be an easy year for the promotional products industry. Falling margins require a fundamentally better organisation, particularly at small and medium-sized enterprises. Product search has to be optimised and rationalised. Being quick, good and creative is the challenge. The tools for this are available in the aforementioned COMPETENCE AREA. With growing competition through the Internet and clever software, small companies have to exploit their strengths even better. For this purpose, they have to be aware of them, to make them more conspicuous and use them more effectively. There are also very groundbreaking lectures on this topic in the COMPETENCE AREA.*

So if you want to know more in order to better meet the challenges in 2016, make sure you schedule half a day to take advantage of the offers of the COMPETENCE AREA at the PSI. I can certainly recommend that you do this. As a member of the PSI, you pay for this and should take advantage of the services that a professional team has created for you. I certainly would – and I do.

The PSI is not a trade show that you can tick off in a day. It is simply too large, and all of us can tangibly benefit from the many products and expertise offered by excellent exhibitors. So I am looking forward to seeing you more than once at the PSI.

In this sense, I wish you all a very healthy and successful 2016.

PSI 2016: UNIQUELY VARIED 32

From 13 to 15 January 2016, the exhibition halls in Düsseldorf will once again be hosting Europe's largest promotional products trade show. With innovations and product premieres, enchanting shows on the catwalk and lectures on practical topics, the PSI 2016 will again be an inspiring start in the new promotional products year. There is still time for latecomers to register on the spur of the moment.

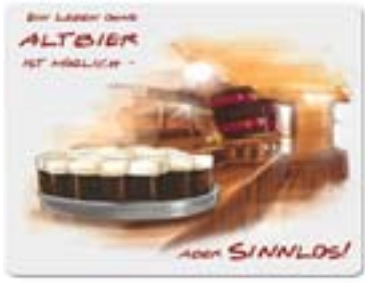
DÜSSELDORF DAY & NIGHT 2016 48

All those who spend the day at the leading trade show of the promotional products industry want to take their enthusiasm and momentum into the early and – indeed also – later hours of the evening or simply let the fully packed day come to an end with a relaxing and delicious meal. Düsseldorf is well prepared for this and holds many old favourites as well as a range of new options on offer.

CHOICE: SHOWTIME OF THE SPECIAL KIND 60

Great cinema was offered by the promotional product specialists Daiber, FARE, Halfar, Karlowsky, mbw and SND under the umbrella company JCK Holding in November. They presented their product show in a cinematic ambience – at the Frankfurt event cinema "Orfeos Erben". Starring in the leading roles were 200 new products.

"DIE STADTMEISTER": EXPERTS FOR LOCAL FLAVOUR 102



A new face in the PSI network community is the company Vivadeau GmbH – "die stadtmeister" from Frankfurt. "die stadtmeister" specializes in the development, design and manufacture of products with a regional connection such as city souvenirs.

CHER MEMBRE PSI, tout est passé au numérique? Non, au contraire : plus de 70 pour cent des dépenses publicitaires partent dans des canaux classiques. Dans le classement des supports publicitaires, les articles promotionnels devancent encore la publicité en ligne.

La « publicité à saisir » appartient ainsi toujours au répertoire fixe du marketing mix. Les articles promotionnels transportent votre message à travers tous les sens : nous pouvons le sentir, le goûter, le voir, l'entendre et le toucher. Nos sens nous permettent de traiter plus rapidement les messages. En outre, presque la moitié des petites attentions sont utilisées durent plus d'un an et peuvent donc porter leurs fruits sur une longue période.

La distribution d'articles promotionnels, dans sa globalité, doit toutefois mettre plus en valeur sa compétitivité par rapport à d'autres formes publicitaires. Elle doit attirer de nouveaux clients et doit renforcer et consolider son image auprès des clients existants. Le salon PSI, en tant que salon phare en Europe, offre les meilleures opportunités d'ouverture des articles promotionnels vers un plus grand nombre de professionnels de la publicité.

Faisons avancer ensemble le développement de l'industrie des articles promotionnels. Mais je vous souhaite et je nous souhaite avant tout un bon salon PSI 2016.

Managing Director, PSI

ESTIMADOS MIEMBROS DE LA PSI:

¿Es que acaso está todo digitalizado? No, todo lo contrario: más del 70 por ciento de los gastos en publicidad a nivel mundial desembocan en canales clásicos. En el ranking de los medios publicitarios, los artículos promocionales siguen situándose por delante de la publicidad online.

De este modo, la "publicidad palpable" se incluye cada vez con mayor fuerza en el repertorio fijo del marketing mix. Los artículos publicitarios transmiten su mensaje a través de todos los sentidos: podemos olerlos, saborearlos, verlos, escucharlos y tocarlos. A través de los sentidos podemos procesar los mensajes con mayor rapidez. Adicionalmente, casi la mitad de los pequeños obsequios se utilizan durante más de un año y, de este modo, pueden desplegar su influencia durante un periodo de tiempo prolongado.

No obstante, la industria de los artículos publicitarios en su totalidad debe hacer valer aún más su competitividad frente a otras formas publicitarias. Debe explorar activamente nuevos círculos de clientes, y ampliar y reforzar su imagen ante los clientes existentes. La feria PSI, feria líder en Europa dentro de su sector, ofrece las mejores posibilidades para presentar los artículos publicitarios a círculos más amplios de la industria publicitaria.

Impulsemos conjuntamente el desarrollo de la industria publicitaria. Por el momento, espero que tanto ustedes como nosotros obtengamos los mejores resultados en la feria PSI 2016.

Atentamente,
Michael Freter, director gerente, PSI

SEHR GEEHRTE, LIEBE PSI-MITGLIEDER, alles nur digital? Nein, im Gegenteil: Über 70 Prozent der weltweiten Werbeausgaben fließen in klassische Kanäle. Im Ranking der Werbeträger liegen Werbeartikel noch vor der Onlinewerbung.

Damit gehört die „Werbung zum Anfassen“ immer mehr zum festen Repertoire im Marketing-Mix. Werbeartikel transportieren ihre Botschaft über alle Sinne – wir können sie riechen, schmecken, sehen, hören und ertasten. Über die Sinne können wir die Botschaften schneller verarbeiten. Noch dazu ist knapp die Hälfte der kleinen Aufmerksamkeiten mehr als ein Jahr im Gebrauch und kann so ihre Wirkung über einen langen Zeitraum entfalten.

Dennoch muss die Werbeartikelwirtschaft in ihrer Gesamtheit ihre Wettbewerbsfähigkeit gegenüber anderen Werbeformen stärker zur Geltung bringen. Sie muss aktiv neue Kundenkreise erschließen und das Image bei Bestandskunden ausbauen und stärken. Die PSI Messe als Europas führende Leistungsschau bietet beste Möglichkeiten, den Werbeartikel größeren Kreisen der Werbewirtschaft zu erschließen.

Lassen Sie uns gemeinsam die Weiterentwicklung der Werbeartikelwirtschaft vorantreiben. Zunächst aber wünsche ich Ihnen und uns allen eine erfolgreiche PSI 2016.

GENTILI SOCI PSI,

tutto è rigorosamente in digitale? Al contrario: oltre il 70% della spesa pubblicitaria globale fluisce nei canali classici. Nella classifica degli strumenti del settore, gli articoli pubblicitari precedono la pubblicità online.

La “pubblicità da toccare con mano” è sempre più presente nel marketing mix. Gli articoli pubblicitari trasmettono il loro messaggio coinvolgendo i 5 sensi: possiamo odorarli, gustarli, vederli, sentirli e palparli. E tramite i sensi siamo in grado di elaborare questi messaggi con maggiore rapidità. Inoltre, circa la metà di questi accessori vengono utilizzati per oltre un anno, producendo così un effetto pubblicitario di lungo termine.

L’industria dei prodotti pubblicitari nella sua totalità deve comunque mostrare maggiore competitività nei confronti delle altre forme pubblicitarie. Deve aprirsi a nuovi clienti, continuando ad ampliare e rafforzare la propria immagine con quelli già fidelizzati. La fiera PSI, quale vetrina leader in Europa, offre le migliori possibilità per aprire agli articoli pubblicitari aree più vaste di questo settore.

Portiamo avanti insieme lo sviluppo dell’industria dei prodotti pubblicitari.Per ora auguro a tutti Voi buona fortuna alla PSI 2016.

GEACHTE PSI-LEDEN,

Alles alleen digitaal? Nee, integendeel: meer dan 70 procent van de wereldwijde reclame-uitgaven vloeien naar de klassieke kanalen. In de ranking van de reclamedragers staan reclameartikelen nog altijd voor online reclame.

Daarmee behoort „reclame om vast te pakken“ steeds meer tot het vaste repertoire van de marketing-mix. Reclameartikelen brengen uw boodschap via alle zintuigen over – we kunnen ze ruiken, smaken, zien, horen en aanraken. Dankzij onze zintuigen kunnen we boodschappen sneller verwerken. Bovendien wordt bijna de helft van de kleine geschenken meer dan een jaar gebruikt en kan hun effect zo over een lange periode ontplooien.

Toch moet de reclameartikelensector in zijn totaliteit zijn concurrentievermogen tegenover andere reclamevormen sterker doen gelden. De hele sector moet actief nieuwe klantenkringen aanspreken en het imago bij bestaande klanten uitbouwen en versterken. De PSI-beurs biedt als toonaangevende vakbeurs van Europa de beste opportuniteit om reclameartikelen aan bredere kringen binnen de reclame-industrie voor te stellen.

Laten we onze krachten bundelen om de verdere ontwikkeling van de reclameartikelenindustrie te stimuleren. Maar eerst en vooral wens ik u en ons allemaal een succesvol PSI 2016.

Met vriendelijke groeten,
Michael Freter, Managing Director, PSI

SZANOWNI CZŁONKOWIE PSI

wszystko tylko cyfrowe? Nie, wręcz przeciwnie: ponad 70 procent światowych wydatków na reklamę płynie klasycznymi kanałami. W rankingu nośników reklamowych produkty reklamowe znajdują się jeszcze przed reklamą online.

W związku z tym „reklama namacalna“ nadal należy do stałego repertuaru Marketing Mix. Produkty reklamowe niosą swój przekaz poprzez wszystkie zmysły – możemy ich powąchać, posmakować, zobaczyć, usłyszeć i dotknąć. Dzięki tym zmysłom możemy szybciej przetwarzać docierające do nas informacje. Ponadto większość tych drobnych upominków znajduje się jeszcze przez rok w obiegu przez co mogą one rozwinąć swoją moc w długim okresie.

Pomimo tego całość przemysłu produktów reklamowych musi silniej przebijać się względem konkurencyjnych form promocji. Musi aktywnie stwarzać nowe kręgi klientów a jednocześnie rozbudowywać i wzmacniać grupę stałych kontrahentów. Targi PSI jako wiodące w Europie stwarzają idealną możliwość propagowania produktów reklamowych szerokim kręgom.

Rozwińmy wspólnie przemysł produktów reklamowych. Ale najpierw życzę Państwu i Nam targów PSI 2016 pełnych sukcesów.

Z wyrazami szacunku,
Michael Freter, Managing Director, PSI

ДОРОГИЕ И УВАЖАЕМЫЕ ЧЛЕНЫ PSI!

Всё только в оцифрованном виде? Вовсе нет, как оказывается: более 70 процентов расходов на рекламу во всём мире идёт на классические её варианты. Во всемирном рейтинге рекламных носителей промо-продукция по-прежнему обгоняет рекламу в интернете.

Таким образом, «реклама, которую можно потрогать» пользуется растущей популярностью в репертуаре маркетинга. Промо-продукция обращается ко всем органам чувств – мы можем ощущать её запах, вкус, видеть, слышать, осязать. Благодаря тому, что задействованы органы чувств, мы быстрее воспринимаем важную информацию. Кроме того, не следует забывать, что практически каждый второй рекламно-сувенирный подарок – небольшой знак внимания – используется более года, благодаря чему оказывает своё воздействие в течение длительного периода.

Тем не менее, отрасль промо-продукции в целом должна более энергично демонстрировать свои сильные стороны и конкурентоспособность по отношению к другим формам рекламы. Она должна активно привлекать новую клиентуру, а также расширять и укреплять свой имидж в глазах уже существующих клиентов. PSI, будучи ведущей европейской профильной выставкой, предлагает идеальные возможности для представления промо-продукции широким кругам представителей рекламной индустрии.

Давайте общими силами содействовать дальнейшему развитию бизнес-сувенирной отрасли! А сейчас желаю вам – и всем нам – успешного проведения выставки Är allting digitalt nu för tiden? Nej, tvärtom: mer än 70 procent av världens reklam distribueras via klassiska kanaler. Vid rankningen av reklammedia ligger reklamartiklar före nätreklam.

Därmed ingår „handfast reklam“ alltid i det fasta utbudet i marknadsföringsmixen. Reklamartiklar engagerar alla sinnen med sitt budskap – lukt, smak, syn, hörsel, känsel. Via sinnena kan vi bearbeta budskapen snabbare. Knappt hälften av de små reklambärarna är i bruk mer än ett år, vilket gör att de utvecklar sin effekt under en längre tidsperiod.

Men reklamartikelbranschen totalt måste hävda sig ännu kraftigare gentemot andra reklamformer. Den måste på ett aktivt sätt öppna nya kundkretsar, samt expandera och stärka imagen hos befintliga kunder. PSI-mässan, Europas ledande på området, erbjuder mycket goda möjligheter för reklamprodukterna att etablera sig i större mottagarkretsar i reklamsektorn.

Låt oss tillsammans stödja vidareutvecklingen av reklarmartikelbranschen. Jag vill dock först önska er och oss alla en framgångsrik PSI 2016.

Product media

Promotion products can be used for many years and leaves a big mark. Did you know that 75% of the products is used for more than 6 months? And that we remember product media much better than other advertising? That's why product media needs to be a part of your marketing plan.

SAYIN, SEVGİLİ PSI-ÜYELERİ,

Her şey sadece dijital mi olacak? Hayır, tam tersine: Dünya çapındaki reklam baskılarının % 70 ten fazlası klasik kanallara akmaktadır. Reklam araçlarının sıra listesinde reklam artikelleri online reklamdan daha önce gelmektedir.

Böylelikle „el ile tutulabilen reklamlar“ Pazarlama-Karışımında gittikçe artarak sabit repertuvar içerisinde bulunmaktadır. Reklam artikelleri mesajınızı bütün hislere taşımakta – biz bunları koklayabiliyor, tadabiliyor, görebiliyor ve parmaklarımızla dokunabiliyoruz. Mesajları hislerimiz üzerinden daha hızlı işleme tabi tutabilmekteyiz. Buna ilave olarak ufak dikkat çekicilerin yaklaşık yarısı bir seneden fazla bir süre kullanımda kalmakta ve böylelikle etkilerini uzun bir zaman bölümünde geliştirmektedir.

Buna rağmen reklam maddeleri sanayisi kendi bütünlüğü içerisinde rekabet gücünü diğer reklam şekillerine karşı daha güçlü bir şekilde olumlu yönde etkilemek zorundadır. Reklam maddeleri sanayisi aktif olarak yeni müşteri çevreleri kazanmak ve mevcut olan müşterilerdeki imajını genişletmek ve güçlendirmek zorundadır. Avrupa'da performans seyretme alanında lider konumunda olan PSI Fuarı, reklam maddelerini reklam sanayisinde daha büyük çevrelere açmak için en iyi olanakları sunmaktadır.

Gelin, birlikte reklam maddeleri sanayisinin daha da gelişmesini gerçekleştirelim. Fakat şimdilik size ve hepimize başarılı bir PSI 2016 fuarı geçirilmesini temenni ediyorum.

DEAR PSI MEMBERS,

Everything's just digital? No, on the contrary: more than 70 percent of global advertising spending flows in classic channels. In the advertising medium ranking, promotional items are still ahead of online advertising.

Thus the "advertising to touch" is increasingly part of the fixed repertoire in the marketing mix. Promotional products convey their message through all the senses – we can smell, taste, see, hear and feel them. We can process the messages more quickly via the senses. On top of this, almost half of the little gifts are in use for more than a year, so they have plenty of time to take effect.

Nevertheless, the promotional products industry as a whole needs to become more competitive in relation to other forms of advertising. It needs to actively attract new customers and expand and strengthen its image among existing customers. As Europe's leading exhibition, the PSI trade show offers excellent opportunities for opening up larger sectors of the advertising industry for promotional items.

Let us work together on the development of the promotional products industry.
First, however, I wish you and all of us a successful PSI 2016.

Yours
Michael Freter, Managing Director, PSI

BLAZE OF COLOUR

Colours and light play a very important role for general well-being. Colours give people orientation, trigger a variety of associations and emotions. On the one hand, this has to do with individual experiences, on the other hand with traditions. But not only do colours influence people. People affect colours, for example through colour mixtures. Colours are a matter of taste and, quite literally, a matter of opinion. From a purely scientific perspective, colour is an individual, visual perception caused by light. Thus, each colour unfolds its own effect – even in the case of promotional products. In order to ensure that colours and promotional products can unfold their individual efficacy, a selection of both has been compiled here.

A SHINING EXAMPLE

People require light to perceive their environment and to feel alert. Light is essential for well-being and health. It is not without reason that light therapy is considered to be particularly important. Light is a complex issue, even though it is often reduced to one aspect, the radiance of a light source. This may be a natural one, such as the sun, or even artificial in the form of lamps and lights. In the case of the latter version, light can also be readily used in the promotional products industry, as our shining examples show.

A WORLD TO EXPERIENCE AT THE PSI 2016

UNIQUELY VARIED

The 54th PSI Trade Show will open its doors in the second week of the new year. From 13 to 15 January 2016, the exhibition halls in Düsseldorf will once again be hosting Europe's largest promotional products trade show. With innovations and product premieres, enchanting shows on the catwalk and lectures on practical topics, the PSI 2016 will again be an inspiring start in the new promotional products year. There is still time for latecomers to register on the spur of the moment and for exhibitors to invite their customers free of charge. Being there is worthwhile for everyone.

Traditionally held in the first or second week of the new year, the PSI Trade Show always marks the beginning of a new fiscal year. Even though the fiscal year of some promotional products enterprises may deviate from the calendar year, the PSI stands for a fresh start. The end-of-year trade, which is nearly always the season with the highest sales, is behind us, many of us have taken a well-earned break during the holidays and are now starting to look ahead once again. What's new? Where are the trends heading? How can or must I reposition my business to convince customers and give them the best possible service? These questions come up each year anew and are different every time, with a different importance and urgency. The PSI is the industry's leading trade show, a product showcase, information and networking platform all at the same time, and also has answers to offer to many of these questions. It provides ideas and suggestions, creates a basis for contacts, imparts expertise, and brings people together. And if we think of the great fashion shows on the PSI CATWALK,

This is how fashionable promotional textiles can be: Hall 10, with its emphasis on textiles, is a must for every visitor.

Culinary promotional ideas and consulting are on offer at the PSI's GUSTO Tasting Pavilion.

the after-work party at the trade show on Thursday, the bars in the International Area, and the many stand parties, where you can meet old and new acquaintances, it is a lot of fun, too. You should by no means miss this profitable start in the new year. Here are once again the highlights of the PSI 2016.

KNOWLEDGE, INNOVATION AND INFORMATION

The central focus of the PSI 2016 will be the expanded TEXTILE AREA with the PSI CATWALK, the PSI Institute – COMPETENCE AREA and the TECHNOLOGY FORUM, all centres of concentrated information and expert knowledge, as well as the PSI FIRST premiere show with the new Peoples' Choice Awards. What is new about this award? Instead of a jury, the promotional products professionals themselves choose their favourites from among the fifty product premieres at the trade show. The winning products are certain to have the best chances of getting into many showrooms and delighting customers. To get a quick overview of all premiere products, you should pay attention to the showcases in the COMPETENCE AREA in Hall 9, where all new products are displayed in one place. During the trade show, premiere scouts (hostesses) will be at the ready with information concerning the product premieres, and will also hand out the voting cards. The three winners will be determined at the trade show and announced in the final press release. It is worth taking part, because a tablet will be raffled off among all those who vote. The PSI Institute – COMPETENCE AREA is a new, very spacious area, conceived as a central contact point for all exhibitors and visitors looking for information on the various services offered by PSI. Here the PSI Institute Praxis Forum will also be held, an extensive programme of lectures to accompany the trade show, offering a compact lecture every half hour every day to present knowledge and useful suggestions related to the industry.

TECHNOLOGY AND FINISHING AT FIRST HAND

The PSI has been presenting the TECHNOLOGY FORUM for so many years now that it has become a classic and essential feature of the trade show. At the special area in Hall 12, concentrated knowledge on the topic of advertising application is presented and demonstrated. At the Technology Forum, specialists show the visitors various printing processes, engraving techniques and other methods of applying advertising. Here distributors can see at first hand how a product is made into a promotional product and gather indispensable expertise to use when advising their own customers. The traditional machine show with live demonstrations is supplemented by an area at which exhibitors located in nearby halls can demonstrate the products, services, and technologies. In this demonstration area, visitors can experience various manufacturing and finishing processes up close. For instance, the labelling and packaging specialist Uni-label and Roland, the expert for printers, cutting plotters, and modelling machines, will be presenting their finishing techniques. The Polish company Badge4u will also be on hand to illustrate how badges are put together. Visitors can also find out about the various 3D or digital printing techniques, which are constantly evolving.

INTERNATIONAL INDUSTRY GET-TOGETHER

The International Area in Hall 12 clearly shows once again that the PSI is a worldwide group of companies where international exhibitors, associations, and joint stands can be found presenting information on the offers, services and products of their specific countries. Along with many others, visitors to the trade show can meet associations and partners from Spain, Poland, Russia and the USA here. The BPMA (British Promotional Merchandise Association) will be bringing British exhibitors together in its own pavilion, and the nearby Netherland Pavilion will again be a contact point for the Dutch and international crowd with the Holland Bar by HetPortaal. The ScandiBase, too, will again be found in Hall 12.

THE PSI, YOUNGER THAN EVER

The HALL13 area, which has been enlarged this year due to great demand, will show how young and up-to-date the PSI is, despite being 54 years of age. This area has now grown beyond its location in Hall 12 and grown into Hall 11. In Hall 11, 11L50/11N79 and Hall 12, 12K03 – 12O44, you will encounter first- and second-time exhibitors, inventors, and young, innovative companies – a genuine pool of ideas for all those who are looking for something special.

A WORLD TO EXPERIENCE AT THE PSI

The focus on textiles makes Hall 10 a real highlight, with the TEXTILE AREA, TEXTILE FINISHING AREA and PSI CATWALK. The creative staging of fashion and accessories by means of lively presentation shows with professional moderation will be sure to entice you. The live acts showing off the products of twenty textile suppliers should by no means be missed. Four presentations are planned for Wednesday, and four for Thursday, as well, while Friday will have three presentations. The show starts daily at 11 am. On Wednesday and Thursday, additional thirty-minute slots will follow at 1 pm, 3 pm, and 4.30 pm. On PSI Friday, there will be a total three shows on the runway. If you want to be on hand, you should be at the catwalk in the TEXTILE AREA in Hall 10 at 11 am or 1 pm, or at 2 pm for the grand finale. At the finale, all participants will be presented one last time. Not only the PSI CATWALK, but also the GUSTO tasting pavilion is one of the "new" presentation formats which have caught on among the visitors to the trade show. "New" in this context is a relative term, for GUSTO has been inviting you to try its wide variety of specialties for three years already. At the elegantly functional stand in Hall 9, you will find many different culinary advertising ideas and experts to advise you at the trade show.

PSI AFTER WORK: CULTIVATED PARTYING

The name changes, the message of the event remains the same: whether it's re-

Meeting and contacting made easy: the new PSI matchmaking Tool. Also ideal for the last-minute planning of trade show appointments.

Innovative, international, unusual: the PSI shows its young side in Hall 12 and Hall 11.

ception, get-together, PSI Night or PSI AFTER WORK – an industry sensation like the PSI needs its networking event, where exhibitors and visitors can meet on an evening for cultivated partying. So it is especially practical that this year's evening event once again takes place at the trade show itself. On the Thursday of the trade show, you can leave the daily routine behind you as soon as the trade show ends at 6 pm and immerse yourself in the relaxed after-work atmosphere. Here you will be able to chill tastefully with a glass of wine and light refreshments, meet interesting people, and socialize with them. A cocktail bar will provide the right flair and congenial drinks.

NETWORKING MADE EASY: PSI MATCHMAKING TOOL

The PSI brings together supply and demand, but above all people, as it has been doing for more than fifty years. But it has never been so easy to make direct contacts and appointments beforehand. That is because this year the PSI matchmaking tool will be available to all participants for the first time. This tool is accessible free of charge to visitors and exhibitors and useful in all functions. With the help of this tool, visitors can make personal appointments with exhibitors before the trade show – quickly and with little effort. You can automatically access the tool after booking a ticket at the PSI Ticketshop, and there is an invitation mail for this purpose. However, it is advisable to take a few minutes' time after logging in to refine your profile to get a large number of search hits. The PSI matchmaking tool is also an ideal instrument for exhibitors to help visitors find them even before the trade show. The main exhibitor contacts are already filed in the tool, but exhibitors should also add the contact data of their stand personnel (including departments and responsibilities) after the first login to get as many hits as possible. Now before the trade show is the right time to make use of the tool to renew old contacts and make new ones. Give it a try!

INVITE CUSTOMERS NOW

You have to have seen the PSI to get an idea of the possibilities offered by the promotional products business. This year once again, exhibitors have the opportunity to invite all their distributor customers to the PSI free of charge – regardless of whether they are members of the PSI. No exhibitor should miss this opportunity to keep up existing customer relationships and make or expand new ones. Exhibitors themselves can thus do a lot to make the PSI an even better known marketplace for promotional products and contribute to the trade show's success with this invitation campaign. It is not yet too late as customer invitations can be extended up to the last minute. The invitation process is very simple thanks to e-mail templates and the Online Servicing Center (OSC), and what is more, exhibitors can count on support from PSI. <

DÜSSELDORF DAY & NIGHT 2016

"Alle Jahre wieder" (Every year again)... Even though this Yuletide carol in its original version is no longer to be heard, "every year again" is certainly applicable at the start of the new year 2016 that begins with the industry highlight. For the 54th time, the PSI presents a trend-conscious specialist audience the most interesting innovations and ideas from the world of promotional products. But all those who spend the day at the leading trade show of the promotional products industry want to take their enthusiasm and momentum into the early and – indeed also – later hours of the evening or simply let the fully packed day come to an end with a relaxing and delicious meal. Düsseldorf is well prepared for this and holds many old favourites as well as a range of new options on offer.

DÜSSELDORF – RELAXED, TASTY, LIFESTYLE

Vegan, vegetarian or carnivore after all? A culinary journey to foreign lands or genuine Rhineland cuisine? Quaint or stylish? Those who have a choice certainly always have the possibility to find something suitable in Düsseldorf. Because there's nothing that can't be found here. In other words: there's something for every taste and, above all, for every taste the right alternative. And all those who would like to try something new can enjoy diverse tastes and flavours thanks to the wide variety on offer. In order not to become overwhelmed by the vast range of options, we present a small potpourri of culinary pleasures that the metropolis on the Rhine has to offer on the following pages.

A TOUCH OF THE MEDITERRANEAN

Casa Gustosa Pempelfort, Nordstr. 28, Phone: +49 211 9542397; Main courses 10–19 euros

The name of this restaurant with French-Italian-North African-style cuisine captures it in a nutshell. In the Mediterranean atmosphere of Restaurant Casa Gustosa it's really very tasty and tasteful, as the interior reveals. Not cluttered, instead harmoniously arranged – just like the menu, which includes the classic bouillabaisse along with freshly caught gilthead sea bream, lamb chops and pasta specialities. The head chef places particular importance on fresh, spontaneous cuisine and natural ingredients prepared á la minute. Because ultimately he strives to create the perfect flavour compositions to satisfy every palate's desire.

Gallo Nero Bilk, Binterimstr. 27, Phone: +49 211 3179303; Main courses 11–23 euros

At first sight Gallo Nero (black rooster) looks quite purist. At second glance – at the latest when perusing the thick, leather-bound menu – it becomes very lush. The culinary success story: classic recipes and good products. Those who enjoy hand-made pasta with that special touch, together with a good drop of fine wine should take note of the address of Gallo Nero – alone in order to make a reservation well in advance. The black rooster has a passionate fan base.

Hot La Cucina Oberkassel, Dominikanerstr. 14, Phone: +49 211 556418; Main courses 7–12 euros

Those who need to make many decisions always hope that they are the right ones. What a luxury to already know it in advance. When it comes to choosing the meal, it's almost impossible to go wrong at Hot La Cucina. In addition to the ever-popular favourites including antipasti, salad variations, pasta and pizza, daily specials also await guests. And those who would like to let their mouths water right from the start should choose a table in front of the open kitchen. Here the chefs can be admired while they create the wide range of their culinary masterpieces.

Principale Pizzabar Flingern, Lindenstr. 66, Phone: +49 211 20070727; Main courses 6–17 euros

Principale Pizzabar is a new alternative for friends of the Mediterranean kitchen. The slightly different aspect here: there are not only meals to suit the big appetite. The dishes listed under the category "Spuntini" indicate a snack which has little to do with a snack in the conventional sense. It actually involves little culinary treasures, which are very filling and, at the same time, gentle on the wallet. In the very pleasant environment it's almost a must that the patron still serves guests personally here.

Lezzet Pempelfort, Seydlitzstr. 55, Phone: +49 211 93896376; Main courses 10–25 euros

Mercimek Corbasi, Haydari, Sigara Böregi, Limon Soslu Somon Baligi, Sekerpare. These names will surely make the mouths of Turkish speaking guests water. With these and many other delicacies, Lezzet has been a part of the dining scene in Düsseldorf since 2014, and embodies what the Turkish name of the restaurant promises: pleasure. And pleasure is a key priority for Lokman Yildrim and his team. Because day in, day out he strives to present his composition of international dishes and beverages with typical Turkish hospitality to every guest personally, all within a Mediterranean atmosphere.

SUMPTUOUS ASIAN EXPEDITION

Veatnam Friedrichstadt, Bilker Allee 164, Phone: +49 211 83081358; Main courses 9–11 euros

To describe Veatnam in the best possible way, one needs to let the Veatnam team speak for itself: "Amidst the charming perfection of the imperfect, the spirit and soul of traditional Vietnamese cuisine can be found. The recipes for our Vietnamese delicacies have been passed down from generation to generation and we prepare them with a great deal of heart and soul in a traditional, local and authentic manner." Guests who would like to experience the street food flair of Asian food stalls are in the right place at Veatnam.

Benkay im Hotel Nikko, Immermannstr. 41, Phone: +49 211 8342620; Main courses 12–139 euros

Düsseldorf has a good selection of Japanese restaurants. After all, the metropolis on the Rhine is home to one of the largest Japanese communities in Europe. The "Benkay", in the Japanese four-star hotel "Nikko", is a small Japanese cosmos and offers three restaurant areas in total: the "Fish corner" with sushi bar, Tatami rooms, where guests traditionally sit on the ground on rice straw mats, and a separate Teppanyaki grill area (incidentally the only one in Düsseldorf). Applicable to all: the dishes are very carefully and always freshly prepared.

Ginger Boy Derendorf, Glockenstr. 24, Phone: +49 211 56678328; Main courses 11–16 euros

Even if the name doesn't immediately make it obvious, Ginger Boy is ideal for lovers of good Chinese cuisine. And the restaurant has already developed an ardent fan base. The saying "you also eat with your eyes" definitely applies here. The tasteful tableware offers a real treat for the eyes. The creative names given to the dishes also attract attention. Whether it's "From Beijing with Love", "Emperor Zhu's favourite soup" or "Imperial Garden" – nothing stands in the way of a culinary journey to China.

MEAT-FREE DINING

Sattgrün Flingern, Hoffeldstr. 18, Phone: +49 211 68874080

This name is sure to make the hearts of all vegetarians and vegans beat a little faster. Sattgrün exclusively offers plant-based cuisine – cholesterol-, lactose- and additive-free to boot. There are no limits to the culinary creations that Sattgrün can offer. Whether Mediterranean or Asian – the gastronomic imagination knows no bounds here.

Kirti's Dhaba Pempelfort, Düsselthaler Str. 1a, Phone: +49 211 8604202

Small restaurant – big variety. This is the best way to describe Kirti's Dhaba. The cuisine is Indian, guaranteed vegetarian – and offers tasty, meat-free and always affordable meals.

Fleischfrei Oberbilk, Oberbilker Allee 256, Phone: +49 211 9847090

The name is the game at Fleischfrei (meat-free): vegan alternatives to meat, based on soya or seitan, are used in the preparation of the dishes. These are coupled exclusively with fresh ingredients, the majority of which come from the local region. The outcomes are a real feast for the eyes and palate: whether it's tahini or mango-chilli burger with sweet potato fries, a pizza with colourful grilled vegetables or tofu nuggets – Fleischfrei offers a wide range of delicious meat-free alternatives.

SchnellVeg Pempelfort, Bagelstr. 130, Phone: +49 211 91184728
SchnellVeg has a clearly defined philosophy: it entices guests to stay a while and savour. Wholesome vegetarian-vegan cuisine, fresh and deliciously prepared dishes, as well as an informal spatial concept – this is how the operators describe their passion and profession. Travels through far-away lands have inspired the SchnellVeg team to try out new ideas and see the bigger picture. The outcome includes dishes like tarte flambée with homemade cashew "mozzarella" and further ingredients such as spicy harissa or fresh spinach and figs, crunchy polenta wedges or Siem Reap salad with pineapple and pepperoni.

SOMEHOW DIFFERENT

Brasserie 1806 Königsallee 11, Breidenbacher Hof, Phone: +49 211 160900; Main courses 18–49 euros
Luxury at an affordable price. Surely there's no-one who doesn't want this. Brasserie 1806, located on Düsseldorf's legendary "Kö" avenue, makes this possible. The selection of dishes ranges from homemade fries in pseudo newspaper wrapping, to salad with Irish brown crab, right through to grilled dry-aged entrecôte – and naturally many other sumptuous pleasures which are too vast to list. Brasserie 1806 unites several trends. And the view of the rich and beautiful strolling along the glamorous "Kö" boulevard comes free to boot.

U. das Restaurant Klosterstr. 34, Phone: +49 211 91336992; Main courses 19–69 euros
A letter sometimes says more than an entire word or even a sentence. "U. das Restaurant" is an impressive example of this. There's no beating around the bush here. The menu is – in contrast to haute cuisine – kept to the basics. Without bells and whistles. On the other hand, the choice of ingredients is spectacular; the restaurant itself a real attention-grabber. "U" simply stands for unconventional in this case.

Em Brass Pempelfort, Moltkestr. 122, Phone: +49 211 36183617; Main courses 14–28 euros
A young, hip Düsseldorf "in-restaurant" and yet somehow cosy and relaxed. A contradiction? Not when one speaks about Em Brass. Judging by its extreme popularity, a real tip. The creative-culinary mind behind this concept is a Düsseldorf local with Egyptian roots, which comes to the fore aromatically in his crossover dishes. A true master of fusion food.

Fehrenbach Pempelfort, Schwerinstr. 40, Phone: +49 211 9894587; Main courses 24–30 euros
Cooking and eating are among the loveliest expressions of a culture, says Julia Fehrenbach and head chef Alexander Türk from "Fehrenbach" restaurant. The declared philosophy: passionately cooked, lovingly served and savoured with relish. The three menus "Love", "Lust" and "Passion" thus add an exciting touch. Fine creations from which the guests can also put together their own individual menu.

Dorfschänke Niederkassel, Alt Niederkassel 49, Phone: +49 211 570732; Main courses 13–19 euros
Rhineland cuisine with special pizzazz is Dorfschänke's culinary motto. This also means: fresh products from the local region and specialties updated on a daily basis according to the season. Those who want to enjoy a peaceful meal, where not only the village feels at home, are in the right place at Dorfschänke. After all, the restaurant is recommended in the guide "Slow Food Genussführer 2015". <

LATE NIGHT IN DÜSSELDORF

Düsseldorf stands first and foremost for fashion, shopping, culture, lifestyle and trade shows. The birthplace of the notable German poet, writer and journalist Heinrich Heine is, however, also rich in venues, clubs, theatres and concert halls which shape the character of the Rhine metropolis. Whether you are an arts lover seeking an evening of refinement and culture, or a nightowl looking for vibrant nightlife, Düsseldorf has everything you could possibly wish for.

THE BEST ENTERTAINMENT GUARANTEED

An exclamation that applies to the Düsseldorf arts scene time and again. Big stages, intimate theatre, excellent artistry. On the boards that mirror the world outside, there is something to suit everyone.

Capitol Theater Düsseldorf Erkrather Str. 30, 40233 Düsseldorf, Phone: +49 211 7344-150, ticket hotline: +49 1805-2001

Whoever likes the theatre will love the Capitol Theater. The largest theatre in Düsseldorf is a more than 100-year-old former tram depot. The special thing about it is that the original brickwork character and the former depot building were retained. Seating around 1,100 people in the large hall and 400 in the small hall, it is the largest theatre in the state capital of North Rhine-Westphalia. The Capitol Theater is known for top-class, exceptional entertainment in its musicals, comedies, shows and events.

Savoy Theater Graf-Adolf-Straße 47, 40210 Düsseldorf, Phone: +49 211 8308900
The Savoy Theater is a performing arts theatre in the heart of Düsseldorf, which has established itself here in the meantime as a solid cultural institution. The curtain regularly rises on comedy, cabaret, readings, concerts and smaller-scale performing arts. The programme of the theatre, which emanates the charming style of the 1950s, continually features well-known and versatile artists.

Tonhalle Düsseldorf Ehrenhof 1, 40479 Düsseldorf
The largest planetarium in the world at the time of its construction, today the Tonhalle is often described as the most beautiful concert house in Germany. The repertoire ranges from cabaret and popular music to classical music with big stars and ensembles.

Apollo Varieté Apollo-Platz 1, 40213 Düsseldorf, Phone: +49 211 8289090.
At the Apollo Varieté the stage is open for the whole spectrum of fascinating artistry. Under the direction of the founder of Circus Roncalli, Bernhard Paul, Roncalli's Apollo Varieté invites you to a show that is fantastic in every sense of the word, including magic, comedy, ballet and acrobatics. The theatre is regarded as one of the most beautiful vaudeville theatres in Europe and with 476 seats is the largest in Germany.

CHILLING OUT VERY NICELY

Chilling out essentially means recovering after exertion, relaxing. If you want to chill out in refined surroundings after a stressful day at the trade show, you will find way more than one unique opportunity in Düsseldorf, as the following small selection shows.

Et Kabüffke Flinger Str. 1, 40213 Düsseldorf
Whoever would like to experience a symbiosis of tradition and cult should get to know Et Kabüffke. The small, quaint tasting room is an absolute highlight of Düsseldorf Old Town and for many the starting point of a night out. It attracts a mixed, colourful crowd. The many antiques create a captivating atmosphere.

Pebble's (Hafen), Speditionstr. 19, 40221 Düsseldorf
A UFO at the Media Harbour? On the outside it seems to be really from outer space, but inside it's a champagne lounge. However to reduce Pebble's – which belongs to the Hyatt Regency Hotel – to a champagne lounge would be selling it short. Excellent German wines as well as a cocktails and spirits selection are also served here with a definitely futuristic flair. If you would rather have a more commonplace cocktail, you'll get this at the DOX Bar next door.

The View Skylounge & Bar im Innside Düsseldorf Hafen, Speditionstr. 9, 40221 Düsseldorf
A 360-degree panorama of Düsseldorf. Thanks to the glass Skylounge on the 16th floor of the Innside Hotel, a feast for the eyes awaits you. And there's no shortage of delights for the palate either. Food fit for foodies and a drop or two of choice wines characterise The View Skylounge & Bar experience as do live jazz, lounge and soul music.

Schlösser Quartier Bohème Ratinger Str. 25, 40213 Düsseldorf
A real institution in Düsseldorf nightlife – all the same it is not easy to define Schlösser Quartier Bohème: it is restaurant, bar, lounge, event location, club and venue for cultural events all in one. Whether you come for a cool glass of Schlösser Alt from the tap, to enjoy homecooked German cooking or dishes from Alsace or simply to chill out – Schlösser Quartier Bohème appeals to young and old. <

THE BRAND COMPANY

PRICE CALCULATOR FOR DISTRIBUTORS

The Brand Company, specialized in personalized water bottles and other food products, has implemented a useful tool for distributors, The Price Calculator. It´s a program where you can select the product you want, the personalization of your choice (label, direct print, full wrap, etc), the quantity, and the country of delivery. It gives you an instant quote, which allows the distributor to work for their clients at any time. All products from the current catalogue, in quantities from 200 to 20.000, are now available and the prices of the products in the new catalogue will be uploaded by the end of the year. You can enter through the sites: www.pricecalculator.net, www.calculateurduprix.com or www.calculadordeprecios.com and choose you language. Distributors need to receive a confirmation for the Professional area with special prices. PRODUCT TESTING INSTITUTE REPRESENTED

PREMIERE FOR EUROFINS AT THE 54TH PSI

For the first time ever, an analysis service provider, Eurofins Consumer Product Testing (CPT), will be represented at stand A17 in Hall 12 at the 54th PSI. Eurofins is thus the first product testing institute to participate at the trade show. Legislators impose numerous conditions on many promotional products including giveaways with the aim of ensuring consumer safety and establishing a high level of protection for human health. In addition, there are recommendations from associations and consumer organisations. Can anyone find his way in this legal jungle and still retain an overview of the overall picture? In addition to manufacturers, distributors are also liable. In this respect, CPT offers its services as a reliable partner. The product testing institute specialises in testing products with direct consumer contact. This particularly includes consumer goods such as household products, fashion items, accessories, decorative items, toys, food contact materials (both packaging as well as kitchen utensils), cosmetics, hygiene products as well as detergents, care products and cleaning agents. In addition to consulting and training, the extensive analysis portfolio includes services for mechanical, chemical and electrical testing, microbiological tests, inspection and certification. CPT has many years of experience and develops new testing methods tailored to the needs of the customer if required. The Eurofins laboratories are continuously monitored and certified according to the ISO 17025 guidelines.

CUSTOMERS ENCOURAGED TO SUPPORT CHARITY

The customers of b&a Vertriebs GmbH in Ilsfeld are supporting the construction of a new children's hospice in Stuttgart. Instead, we are sending them a card in which we encourage them to make a voluntary donation to the project to build a new children's hospice in Stuttgart. We have received a great deal of positive feedback and are pleased that there are PSI distributors who wish to pick up on the idea and pass it on to their industry customers. Perhaps we can all contribute towards ensuring that the 15th children's hospice is built in Germany," says a delighted Gauger who hopes others will support the good cause. b&a is donating inter alia a table football game and toys from fischertechnik. JCK COMPANIES PRESENT NEW PRODUCTS

SHOWTIME OF THE SPECIAL KIND

Great cinema was offered by the promotional product specialists Daiber, FARE, Halfar, Karlowsky, mbw and SND under the umbrella company JCK Holding in November. They presented their product show in a cinematic ambience – at the Frankfurt event cinema „Orfeos Erben“. Starring in the leading roles were 200 new products.

Following its premiere last year in Düsseldorf with a grand fashion show, the joint event of the six manufacturing companies Daiber, FARE, Halfar, Karlowsky, mbw and SND participating this year under the name CHOICE was entirely devoted to the cinema film. From the event location to the invitations designed as movie tickets to adapted posters of major screen classics – the promotional product manufacturers also successfully directed their “cinema premiere”. Merchandising articles for the presentations in the cinema auditorium, a room with 79 seats (including 24 Lufthansa first-class seats from the 1970s), could be admired in the restaurant that had been converted into a showroom. 200 new products were on stage for “CHOICE undiscovered 2016”, the motto of this year‘s event. The CHOICE member companies had invited distributors from all over Europe as well as representatives of the international trade press.

CURTAIN UP FOR “UNDISCOVERED” PRODUCTS

On 19 November, the curtain finally opened for the hitherto “undiscovered” players. The spectrum of innovations was definitely well worth seeing. The stars of Daiber, “James & Nicholson” and “myrtle beach”, appeared under the aspect of “made for unforgettable moments” and amazed with fresh ideas, colour enhancements, cuddly teddy lining, padded with wool felt trim, knitwear, soft shell and fleece, as caps with cool prints from camouflage to magnificent bloom – in short: a range of products covering the requirements of customers in the fields of textile promotion, corporate fashion, incentive and event facilities. FARE presented the "secret weapon umbrella" including the world's first iAuto mini umbrella. The first folding umbrella which can be automatically electrically opened at the press of a button and fully closed again forms the next generation of umbrellas together with its conventional umbrella counterpart: umbrellas with single-hand operation. Halfar surprised with no fewer than three bag trends: the backpack trend that is currently experiencing a strong comeback, the trend towards bags made of cotton, felt and velour, and the trend towards special and individual bags with special solutions. Karlowsky Fashion shone, inter alia, with the Diamond Cut series. The collection with sparkling Swarovski crystal buttons on the lapel is the latest offering of the long-standing company at the forefront of gourmet gastronomy. The Diamond Cut series follows the Karlowsky principle: precision cuts, fine fabrics, perfect details. The products from mbw entered the spotlight as colourful, fresh, flamboyant and new. The "Sonne-ins-Herz" magicians from the diverse Mini-Feet series and the protagonists of the Schmoozies series appeared together. As a special highlight, Bert the advisor appeared at the event with a great dose of good humour. SND PorzellanManufaktur appeared with a declaration of love: "When brands and messages kiss, every day". New and exclusive at SND is the collection of "TV Cups", amusing designer bowls, cups and egg cups with faces. The family-run company also offers a special effect with "in-glaze in qualitative distinction to overglaze". This enables porcelain to become a companion for a long time.

FORETASTE OF THE PSI

Experiencing the six CHOICE member companies together in action was something of a "sneak preview" of the PSI 2016 where FARE, Halfar, Daiber, Karlowsky, mbw and SND will be appearing at an 800 square metre joint stand. With this decision, they underscore their "Family, we are" approach. The new products of the individual companies in 2016 were presented in a brochure under this title. However "Family, we are" is much more. Achieving more together and, above all, continuing to grow is the goal. Strategically, the six member companies have already positioned themselves jointly in one or more aspects. When asked about their partnership, the partners are convinced of the benefits. Everyone considered the joint appearance in Frankfurt a success. And the response of the visitors proves them right. <

UKRAINIAN PROMOTIONAL PRODUCT MARKET

A MARKET WITH UPS AND DOWNS

In Ukraine there are some 3,000 companies operating in the promotional product industry. However, only 25 of them are large enterprises which operate both as manufacturers as well as importers and representatives of European brands. These figures and others have been published by AVIRSU, the association of Ukrainian promotional product manufacturers and importers.

The AVIRSU study provides an insight into the Ukrainian promotional product market. A particularly striking aspect is the distinction between active and passive companies. Of these 3,000 companies, only one third is active. According to the study, the other two thirds operate in a passive mode: They monitor the market and wait. The study formulates this very rationally: "It is abundantly obvious that the existence of 80 per cent of companies will be threatened if they do not reconsider and optimize their business processes. The next crisis would lead to a natural selection."

SUBJECTIVE ASSESSMENTS OF THE MARKET REALITY

The Ukrainian promotional product market has an average annual turnover of US 50 million dollars. A conspicuous outlier was recorded during the European Football Championship in 2012. During this period, the sales figures soared to US 100 million dollars. The onset of the crisis in 2014, however, sparked an inflationary development. According to the study, market participants claim 2015 has been the worst in history to date. The most adversely affected have been companies that are regionally-oriented and specialise in specific products, such as those that operate in the premium segment. The AVIRSU study refers to a "distorted perception of reality." One example: Most market participants say that the market has declined by 50 per cent. However, the actual numbers do not bear this out. AVIRSU therefore believes it is highly probable that the impression of a weaker market has been caused by changes in demand: Representatives of international companies in the promotional product industry report that their sales volume in Ukraine have not decreased, but in fact increased. There is talk of average growth rates of between 10 and 15 per cent per year.

TEXTILES ENJOY A CONSTANTLY STRONG DEMAND

Within the Ukrainian promotional product market, the textile sector boasts the best results. Customers are ordering more and more textiles. Although the sales volume has also increased significantly in quantitative terms in some cases, the quality of the demand varies greatly: While some see a clear trend toward the low-price segment, others say an increasing focus on medium-priced and premium products is taking place – much more than before the crisis. <

SUSTAINABILITY

COMPANIES MUST ACT

A nationwide survey conducted by the consulting firm SCOPAR - Scientific Consulting Partners has confirmed that companies attach great importance to the topic of sustainability, but that there is still much need for action. Apart from the survey results, SCOPAR has also compiled interesting recommendations for companies which would seriously like to take control themselves in matters of sustainability.

Within the framework of the survey, 160 managers, employees, scientists and experts were questioned. They came to the conclusion that politicians have failed completely in relation to sustainability up until now. While it is true that the topic is important for companies, they do not take it seriously enough, according to another result.

SUSTAINABILITY PAYS OFF

The trends are clear: sustainability pays off, in all areas. Whether it's organic, energy saving, environmental protection, e-mobility, humanity, fairness, social responsibility, petitions against Monsanto, fracking or factory farming – all these values and campaigns show a clear direction. Companies which commit themselves entirely to the subject of sustainability flourish (dm Drogeriemarkt, Otto, Henkel). Companies which ignore it disappear from the market (Schlecker, Müllerbrot, Praktiker). Analogous to this, the relationship between lasting employee satisfaction and continuous customer loyalty is currently being debated in scientific circles. Anyone who does not take these relationships into consideration will very quickly experience economic failure.

TRUE CHANGE OF DIRECTION INSTEAD OF GREEN-WASHING

The topic of sustainability seems to have arrived at management level. But what is the reaction? Energy groups are trying to change course by fast-track green-washing. The automobile industry seems to be relying massively on electric cars. Cities like Munich, but also many smaller municipalities, want to become self-sufficient in energy supply and CO_2 neutral. Innumerable companies are suddenly counting employee orientation among their most important values. The list could be continued endlessly. However, it often remains green washing, with just colours, slogans and advertising being changed. The problem with this is that the public is better informed nowadays, expecting and demanding action instead of lip service. It does not allow itself to be fobbed off with a few marketing measures any more. Genuine investments and changes of direction are honoured and leave their mark on turnover, profits, employee satisfaction and overall success. Otto, Henkel, dm, Vaude and Co. are going the right way, but there are still too few such companies. Many are not aware of the new EU guidelines obliging companies with more than 500 employees to disclose sustainability indicators. From 2016 this will no longer be voluntary and sustainability reports will become mandatory.

HOLISTIC PERSPECTIVE

Anyone who seriously wants to approach the topic of sustainability must do so holistically and take into account all three pillars of "people, planet, profit":

Social sustainability/people:
Social, cultural, health of body, mind and spirit etc.

Ecological sustainability/planet:
Emissions, environment, immissions, resources, cradle2cradle etc.

Economic sustainability/profit:
Long-term performance, benefit, fairness over generations etc.

PEOPLE: SOCIAL SUSTAINABILITY

The present survey underlines the fact that a holistic point of view is important for the topic of sustainability, too. Sustainability is an intermeshing system whose wheels mutually influence each other. None of the above-named aspects can be approached in isolation. Over 80 per cent of the respondents consider the social aspect of sustainability to be the most important, which is understandable since we are dealing with people themselves here and in the end they are the people who also make decisions on the other pillars.

PLANET: ECOLOGICAL SUSTAINABILITY

But ecology also plays a crucial role: Over two thirds of the respondents consider this pillar also to be very important because the consumption of global resources is high and half the food in Germany ends up in the garbage. The emerging industrial countries like China and India are growing "regardless of the consequences". Germany knows the plundering of nature and environmental damage from the post-war years. We are also confronted daily in the press by factory farming, meat scandals, increasing resistance to antibiotics in humans and genetic manipulation in food crops. Here there is a need for radical action. Carbon footprints, ecological assessment (of products) and lifecycle analyses (LCA) etc. are the first approaches.

PROFIT: ECONOMIC SUSTAINABILITY

Economic sustainability is also seen by three-quarters of the respondents as a crucial competitive factor. This pillar is not so immediately visible as the first two pillars. Failure often awaits companies which merely maximise short-term profits instead of investing in the future: Nokia, Praktiker and Müller-Brot are just a few big names whose business methods have led them into bankruptcy. Götz Werner, the founder of dm drugstores, says on this point: "If we have made a maximum profit at the end of a business year, then we have done something wrong. Then we have invested too little in customers and employees."

COMPANIES AND POLITICIANS COULD DO MORE

Even if sustainability is recognised as a fundamental necessity, this topic is not taken seriously enough in companies. Only just under a third of the respondents believe that sustainability is already being implemented well in their own company. Thus the results show that there is great need for action here. The assessment of political commitment turns out even worse: Over 50 per cent of the participants are of the view that politicians have failed entirely and just 1 per cent think politicians are taking a constructive approach to the tasks in hand. Finally the question was raised how well the respondents have implemented the topic of sustainability for themselves in their own environment, with their own behaviour and consumption as the indicators. No less than a third state that they are on the right road and a mere 2.5 per cent of participants say that sustainability does not influence their actions.

SUSTAINABILITY IN PRACTICE

STRATEGIES, NOT ONLY FOR COMPANIES

The starting point is the following four steps which map the process to be developed.

- Company-specific identification of the biggest drivers and effects.
- Determination of the biggest deficits to date and prioritisation of fields of action in relation to this
- Drawing up of a concrete roadmap for implementation for the next 1-2, 5 and 10 years. Also includes the certified provision of sufficient funds and resources, both financial and in terms of personnel.
- Evaluation of success by means of previously determined criteria after every two years.

DESIGNING THE CHANGE

The starting point for any activities (strategies, projects, measures) is a holistic analysis. For this is the only thing which in the first place enables recognition of where the biggest sustainability drivers (positive and negative) lie in the company and what effects they entail. Only after these internal and external drivers have been identified can measurement variables (key performance indicators - KPIs) be defined, the actual state measured, targets defined and appropriate measures worked out.

THINK BIG - START SMALL

On the one hand it is important to keep the big picture sketched here in view, but on the other hand to then make a start true to the motto "think big – start small". Important: Companies and their decision makers must realise again that companies exist to serve people. Business is there for people and not people for business. The corresponding strategic decisions and orientation should as far as possible be developed participatively, i.e. involving employees, and also communicated correspondingly. The most important resource for sustainable business success thereby is the creative powers of the employees: they bear the company. Investing in their motivation and sense of purpose, their well-being, their lasting health, in their understanding of handling resources, the environment and social responsibility is sustainability in practice. Especially in view of the changing demographic factors at the beginning of the 21st century and the acute lack of skilled workers associated with it, new thought and action are urgently indicated.

PRACTICAL TIPS FOR CSR

Sustainable and holistic company development takes into account the body, mind and spirit of employees (behaviour) as well as body, mind and spirit of the company (conditions). But not only in the company, every individual can also have some impact in the personal sphere - additionally also inducing others to act in sustainable ways by personal example.

The "knowledge magnet": Keeping knowledge in the company

Scenario: The long-serving employee leaves the company (often purely for reasons of age).
Method: in a half-year transition period his knowledge relevant to the business is transferred by his (possibly fictional) successor in structured, guided interview situations and is thus made available, bringing further gains.

The integrated fitness studio: Mens sana in corpore sano

Scenario: Many employees want to do something for themselves but the journey and expense involved are often very high.
Method: Cooperation with local fitness and wellness studio. Company receives a very favourable flat rate and passes this on to its employees. A fifth of the fitness time can also be reckoned as working time. Or also the offer of free use of a fitness studio to staff. Optionally e.g. inspire employees with regard to free, optimally timed opportunities:

The healthy break: Healthy eating and communicating with pleasure

Scenario: How do I spend my lunch break? Fast food is often expensive and bad.
Method: In cooperation with the company doctor a healthy and tasty choice of food is offered. Healthy food offered cheaply, unhealthy meals expensive or food offerings marked with smileys or according to the traffic-light principle. For smaller businesses also feasible in cooperation with health-oriented local caterers.

The smart telephone book: Who is really responsible?

Scenario: So many topics in the company. But who is responsible? Who really knows their way around?
Method: Topic-centred access to the smart, because of expanded telephone book. The employee immediately sees who is responsible for the topic, who is an expert, who is interested. Combinable with the knowledge map method.

The customer parliament: Together to environmentally-friendly products

Scenario: Products, logistics, application and recycling leave a lot of room for ecological improvements, which harbour not only an image benefit but also tangible economic benefits.
Method: The interested customer often knows best how he will use a product and, if appropriate, dispose of it. Thus his knowledge and ingenuity can provide valuable benefits for the company's own development and marketing department. And why not even possibly (with the help of the customer) win a sustainability prize?

The new human culture: Trust lowers transaction costs

Scenario: A culture of mistrust, working under (unnecessary) pressure lowers the lasting performance capability by at least 20 per cent – permanently! The attitude "My knowledge is my power" prevents urgently-needed innovations.
Method: Human-centric orientation of the company culture lowers absence and friction loss and at the same time significantly raises innovative power, today's most important profit factor. Higher efficiency and effectivity through less controlling. More healthy employees through a greater felt sense of purpose.

Responsible handling of resources: Less is often more

Scenario: Non-renewable energies and raw materials are finite, and in addition their consumption is often directly harmful to the environment.
Method: Gradual conversion to renewable energies. Own use intelligently controlled (ecological footprint). Paying attention to sustainable production and recycling quotas in the case of new products. In the medium term this is often not even more expensive
Everyday examples are LED technology in lighting, switchable sockets, thermal insulation, heating with solar energy and wood, etc.

Regarding emissions as hidden general costs

Scenario: Gases (CO_2) and material waste (plastic) in production and consumption burden us all, and what is more, in the long term.
Method: Keep an eye on the entire product lifecycle together with the resources and aim one's own spending power along these lines. Think through the deployment of products to the end.

Harmonize subjective need with objective supplies

Scenario: The throw-away society often consumes far above its needs and meaningfulness.
Method: Observe the "5 Rs rule" of permaculture:
Refuse: Refrain from unnecessary consumption.
Reduce: Lower necessary consumption.
Reuse: Use things again or adapt them to other uses (second hand)
Repair: Don't throw everything away immediately, but repair it if possible
Recycle: Recycling mostly consumes significantly less energy than manufacturing new.

You are what you eat: Agriculture between organic and factory farming

Scenario: Both in plant and animal agriculture the focus is often only on short-term profit

Method: Subject own attitude towards the known effects of non-sustainable agriculture to scrutiny. Examples of these are monoculture, genetic manipulation, soya as animal feed, 40 per cent of the fish catch for meat production, factory farming using hormones and antibiotics (getting into drinking water) etc. This can often be countered without great expense by buying and processing seasonal produce and by reducing meat consumption from natural animal husbandry.

A rolling stone gathers no moss: Society in motion

Scenario: Despite high ecological and human costs increasing flexibility and mobility are demanded.

Method: make a virtue out of necessity: simply cycle more often rather than taking the car. Bring actual mobility to a healthy level. Critically examine the necessity of a personal physical presence in meetings and instead of a long journey use video conferencing more.

Form interest groups and exchange ideas: Do good and talk about it

Scenario: Personal influence on politicians seems to be negligible. An individual is often unable to change anything.

Method: Found or support interest groups. The virtual network simplifies this a lot. Forums offer places to exchange ideas, writing, posting, motivating. In local (environmental) politics things can often be set in motion by means of information and commitment. At the same time, the status and size of the company can be deployed. Win-win-win situations can thus arise – for individuals and society, also to the advantage of one's own employer.

Holistic change and improvement: With people, not against them.

cenario: 70 per cent of change projects fail – this does not have to be.

Method: Initiate holistic changes and involve employees. In doing this, current developments such as Industry 4.0 as well as demographic change must be taken into account. But changes can only be successful if from the start they take into account the effects on organisation and processes, employees (HR), technology (IT/ITC), as well as suppliers and customers. And changes are borne – or blocked – by people. One only gains success by recognizing interrelations and taking them into account. And by involving people in the change from the start. Professional change management as a comprehensive accompaniment to voluntary (and involuntary) change begins right away in the analysis phase.

PEOPLE MAKE THE DIFFERENCE

There are many hundreds of further measures which companies can carry out. The important thing is to purposefully make a start where there is the greatest need for action in the respective company. Determining this need and developing appropriate measures must be the first step if the topic of sustainability is to be taken seriously. With all measures, an eye for the whole must be maintained and above all it must be realised that it is people that make the difference.

SUSTAINABILITY AS A COMPETITIVE FACTOR OF THE FUTURE

In the next few years, in view of limited resources, demographic change and the massive burden on our environment, the sustainable orientation of a company will crystalize out as one of the decisive competitive factors. On the one hand, in future employees will 'vote with their feet' more and more and migrate to the most attractive employers and on the other hand they will gravitate towards sustainable products and fair services. Therefore a very important survival element will be how sustainable a company's actions are overall. Another important factor is how this company-specific sustainability is represented and then consequently perceived by consumers and partners. In future, marketing will be shaped increasingly on the customer side, the power of the social networks will grow significantly. An eye for the whole, credibly put across – people, machines and methods – alongside the sustainability of the company are THE critical success factors of the future. What is needed is a massive rethink and above all a change in action. However, basically we all ought to ask ourselves the question as well, where prosperity ends and excess begins. As Ludwig Erhard, the father of the German economic miracle, already said just under 70 years ago: "We are almost certain to reach a point where the question will rightly be asked whether it is still useful and right to produce more goods, more material prosperity, or whether it is not sensible by renouncing this 'progress' to gain more awareness, more leisure and more recreation."

THE PROMOTIONAL PRODUCT INDUSTRY

13th – 15th JANUARY 2016 DUSSELDORF

THOUSAND CONTACTS.

PSI 2016
Halls

9 10

It is that time of year again on 13th January: for the 54th time the flagship of the European promotional products industry is steering into the industry's new year and is setting a clear direction and pace. A gigantic product pool once again opens up countless new possibilities for promoting companies to effectively draw attention to themselves and their services. On the following pages we provide an initial insight into the wealth of new products.

We begin our selective presentation with products from the exhibitors in Halls 9 and 10. Via the main entrance 'Nord', with its light-filled foyer, trade show visitors directly enter Hall 9, a kind of gateway to the get-together of the world of promotional products. The PSI Institute has once again done everything in its power to provide an ideal presentation arena for promotional products and offer opportunities to actively explore and experience highlights through many activities and services. For example, the COMPETENCE AREA in Hall 9 (Stand 9M22) offers concentrated know-how – a meeting point that supplies all relevant information for visitors. Whether it is information about the types of PSI membership or the new eBusiness platforms, or if the PSI FIRST winner is to be chosen, or whether it relates to lectures on a variety of topics, the right contact person for customs modalities or product security: the new PSI Institute – COMPETENCE AREA delivers all this. What is more, there is a lounge for appointments arranged in advance via the PSI Matchmaking Tool as well as a presentation of the winners of the first PSI Sustainability Awards. Of course, refreshments have not been forgotten: with a tea, coffee and ice bar, there's something to suit every taste. Further highlights include: the GUSTO Tasting Pavilion (Stand 9L38 and 9L42), the expanded TEXTILE AREA & TEXTILE FINISHING AREA, as well as the PSI CATWALK, where 20 exhibitors will be presenting their promotional textiles as part of a professional fashion show. <

VARIETY FOR EVERYDAY USE

Göckener GmbH has recently started offering brand new product options with a clear customer benefit. These include using a high-quality PU flexigel material and a special manufacturing process. Their product called Auto Pad is especially popular as the anti-slip pads are self-adhesive and can be removed without leaving adhesive residues. They can be used for safely mounting everyday items such as keys, sunglasses or mobile phones. The company's product line also includes shoe insoles, half insoles, heel wedges and pads for the ball of a foot. They protect joints and offer pressure relief and shock absorption. It also includes all types of protectors for particularly sensitive parts of the body that can be attached to textiles. The flexigel products are optimal advertising mediums which users will undeniably enjoy for a long time to come because they have excellent product features, come with interior branding and in a large variety of different colours and shapes, and are comfortable to wear.

TRADITIONAL KITCHEN EQUIPMENT

As a result of their functionality and decades of useful life, enamel items are strongly in the focus again: Due to the sheet metal substrate, the dishware items from Münder Email GmbH are suitable for all stove types – even for induction stoves as well as for grill, campfire and camping. The enamel is burnt into the moulded sheet metal at approx. 850 degrees Celsius in multiple working steps. Decoration by means of transfers and edge enamelling is a labour-intensive process that pays off, as it guarantees longevity even during outdoor use. Enamel dishware, signs too, have another pleasing aspect: Old pieces are frequently disposed of, and collectors across Europe often bid good prices for discontinued models. EXPLANATION AS AN OPPORTUNITY

The Sparkasse banks alone have already issued more than 40 million cards with an RFID radio chip to their customers. Many cardholders do not, however, know about the many advantages and also disadvantages of the new card technology hidden in the payment, membership and admission cards. This topic needs a lot of explanation and many are not yet sufficiently aware of it. This is an opportunity for promotional products distributors, who can highlight to their customers, besides the advertising possibilities, the added value of RFID protective cases for the consumer. Siplast, a German manufacturer of office supplies and ID products, has gained many years' experience with specially developed protective cases for cards and passports with RFID radio chips. Besides a whole variety of printing and finishing options, the company also offers extensive advice and background information. At the PSI 2016, Siplast will have a live test counter on which distributors can test RFID cards and the function of the protective cases for themselves.

WELL-TARGETED ADVERTISING

A coloured edelweiss pendant, a letter opener and a globe are among the new products presented by Artur Schnabel at the trade show. The pendant with real edelweiss has been a popular souvenir and adornment for traditional costumes for many decades. Matching the various Dirndl and fashion colours, the edelweiss pendants are now available with a coloured background and ribbon. The new letter openers featuring designs suiting different target groups, such as for hunters, Christmas, New Year or horse lovers, make opening up mail in an envelope even more fun. And the globe by Artur Schnabel stands for social coexistence and mutual support across the world. Every customer can receive their own motto or promotional slogan. One example is the slogan "Welcome to Germany". Schnabel uses his new manufacturing process, combining pewter and plastic or glass, for the globes. In fact, all products can be customised for promotional purposes: the desired name or text is generally stamped on the items. However, coloured prints can also be applied, if preferred.

MULTIFUNCTIONAL HIGH-TECH

The Leuchtmeter (Light Rule) from meterex, which has received numerous awards across Europe, has now been further enhanced. Leuchtmeter 3.0 will be presented at the PSI 2016 for the first time in improved product quality and with an integrated neodymium magnet. The "world's longest torch" thus combines integrated LED lighting with a strong magnet system. This folding rule now allows dark areas behind heaters or cupboards to be lit up and shines light on engines and machines. The automatic switch-off function of the LED after 5 minutes lighting time significantly reduces energy consumption. Changing the standard CR1220 batteries is quick and easy. Screws, nails or tools, which fall down while making home improvements or on the building site, can now be picked up from depths of up to 2 metres thanks to the built-in magnet system. This saves a great deal of time, hassle and money when standing on a ladder or working over shafts.

Managing Director Ulli Baldus and Sales Manager Stefan Franzen helm the company from the placid town of Netphen in the Siegerland.

FIFTY FIVE OHG

SHOW APPRECIATION

"When promotional products are of truly high-class quality, it may happen that their own manufacturers rub their eyes in surprise at how they turn up one day in situations so steeped in history."

This is what has already happened several times to Ulli Baldus, managing director of functional clothing manufacturer Fifty Five, in the course of his career. For instance, during the memorable night of New Year's Eve just before German reunification, when he was watching politicians and artists admiring the fireworks at the Brandenburg Gate and a business partner told him that the warm jackets provided by the organizer and worn by the celebrities came from Ulli Baldus' factory. VIPs from politics and the culture industry were wearing his functional clothing before the eyes of a whole nation of TV viewers to protect themselves from the December cold.

CONVINCE WITH QUALITY AND FUNCTIONALITY

As this memory shows, the businessman from southern Westphalia does not always know which people and situations will be given his clothing by advertisers. However, these are exceptional cases. He usually knows quite exactly. Then the quality of his textile products – jackets, shirts, trousers, as well as daypacks, baseball caps, multifunctional scarves or small giveaways, such as lens cleaning cloths – have so impressed another company that it purchases the product by the hundreds to equip the marshals or helping hands at a large event, for instance. "One time when the sponsor of a Formula I race cancelled, we were asked if we could make 600 jackets with the prescribed design in a few weeks. Our company is relatively small, but this is just what makes us so flexible. We are as nimble as a weasel, you might say – and that is why we can fulfill this sort of request along with our daily business," says Ulli Baldus. That was just one more of these opportunities for Ulli Baldus to see his products on the TV screen – together with millions of other viewers, who were able to observe the 600 marshals with their bright red shirts in the midst of all the action at the racetrack.

COMFORT IN EVERY KIND OF WEATHER

These unusual occurrences are what stick in the memory of a textile manufacturer

Canadian Coryn M. Belzile designs exclusive lines for Fifty Five and fulfils individual design wishes.v

and provide for notable anecdotes. But not only the extraordinary and spectacular, but above all the everyday satisfaction of customers is what makes for the success of a company such as Fifty Five. This Netphen-based, owner-managed enterprise specializes in functional clothing and accessories of extremely high quality for price-conscious target groups. Whether outdoor jackets and trousers for summer and winter, sweatshirts, or shirts, all articles of apparel from Fifty Five come equipped with a functional membrane developed especially for the company, and which provides outstanding comfort in every sort of weather.

HIGH QUALITY SHOWS APPRECIATION

The clothing from Fifty Five is an especially attractive advertising vehicle because it is an extremely high-quality advertising gift for customers or business partners and at the same time flexibly customizable. "One of our regular customers is a manufacturer of construction machines," Ulli Baldus tells us. "Every time a machine is sold, the machine operator gets a high-quality functional jacket which keeps him warm and dry without making him sweat in milder weather. The jackets are, of course, customized with the logo of the construction machine manufacturer. It is an advertising gift to customers that is of such high value that they are guaranteed to be used in everyday work. At the same time, this helps enhance customer loyalty: not only the logo and design of the jacket carry a reminder of whose advertising gift it was, but especially because it is a sign of true appreciation. And this is how we see it: if you pass on quality, you show appreciation for the recipient!"

SHOW APPRECIATION

Showing appreciation for the one who will in the end use his products is always the key element around which everything revolves for Ulli Baldus and his team. And when he says "always", he means "always". Regardless of whether it is a matter of small giveaways, such as branded lens cleaning cloths that opticians or pharmacists can give their customers, or whether he sells highly functional weatherproof functional jackets that can be worn by machine operators at their daily work as well as by politicians or artists in icy, historical December nights. And if purchasers would like a special design of their own? Even then Ulli Baldus' flexible, agile team can be of help. In this case, customers discuss all their wishes with the Fifty Five team of designers, who can implement their ideas. Doing everything so that in the end those are satisfied who wear or use products from Fifty Five, even fashioning big ideas, is the secret of success for the small company based in Netphen in southern Westphalia. For this too is a factor in the company philosophy, where it always revolves around the same topic: showing appreciation!

Productive Cooperation: Thorsten Köhler and Reenald Koch.

CARSTENSEN IMPORT-EXPORT HANDELSGESELLSCHAFT/REEKO DESIGN

Since the summer of 2015, reeko design has been operating under the umbrella of Carstensen Import-Export Handelsgesellschaft. The combination of the promotional products importer with the specialist for stationery and office products creates numerous synergies that will benefit both sides. PSI Journal spoke to Thorsten Köhler, one of the managing directors of Carstensen, and Reenald Koch, the longtime owner of reeko design.

Reeko design, the promotional products importer formerly headquartered in Quickborn near Hamburg, has become affiliated to the company Carstensen Import-Export Handelsgesellschaft mbH in Ellerau. Reenald Koch commented: "After more than 25 years in our industry, I want to transfer the business into a larger structure to strengthen its market position." In 1996, Koch acquired Roeder & Co., one of the first promotional product importers in Germany, and re-sold it to Antalis in 2000. In 2003, after several more years as general manager of the new unit Antalis Promotional Products, he founded his own promotional products import business called reeko design, which he developed into a successful player in the market. During this time, Carstensen Import-Export with offices in Bangkok, Hong Kong, Jakarta and Shanghai was already an important partner of reeko. The long-standing good relations were now crucial for the integration of reeko design into Carstensen.

Mr. Koch, reeko design has been under a new umbrella for about half a year. How did this come about?

At my age, it is necessary to think about the company's successor. As my son's professional career is moving in a different direction, I contacted Sönke and Sven Carstensen, who I have known for over 20 years. The company Carstensen has been handling the import of products for reeko design for years through their Far East organisation and so it was only a logical consequence that Carstensen took over my company.

What has changed since then? What has remained the same?

Reeko design moved to the premises of Carstensen in Ellerau in August and is thus integrated into the Carstensen organisation.

What should your customers know about the restructure?
Due to the new structure, Reeko design will be significantly more competitive. The Asian organisation with its four offices and synergy effects will significantly improve the competitiveness. The distinctive quality management system which is exemplary through the cooperation with many brand manufacturers of the paper, office supplies and stationery sector will also be used in the promotional products industry. As a division of Carstensen GmbH, Reeko design will continue to be a partner of the promotional product distribution sector, as reeko has always been since 2003. The entire sales team, including the long-standing sales manager Martina Odebrecht, is back on board. The contact persons for the growing customer base will therefore remain.

What are your plans for the future?
I will remain on board for the next two years and mainly take care of the assortment management and analysis. I will also continue to try to establish Eintracht Norderstedt, a football club that plays in the Northerern Regional League, as a third force in Hamburg football.

Mr. Köhler, Carstensen Import-Export Handelsgesellschaft mbH (CIMEX) will be celebrating its 25th anniversary in 2016. What are the core competencies of the company?
The company has so far been operating primarily as a reliable import partner for brand manufacturers of the paper, office supplies and stationery industry, distributors and food retailers. With a network of around 100 employees in various countries in Asia and an expertise in sourcing, quality assurance, compliance, logistics and last but not least also in financing that has developed over the years, CIMEX with its associated agencies has been a long-standing partner of many major brands. The safety and reliability of our products, as well as the establishment and expansion of cooperation with our customers, have top priority for us. Cultivating these values has always taken precedence over short-lived business relationships for us. That is why some customer relationships are almost as old as the company itself.

In the summer of 2015, reeko Design, one of the best-known German promotional product suppliers, was incorporated into your company. What made you decide to expand your field of business?
We're already present in the promotional products industry on a small scale. Owing to the previous work of me and Martin Pancke (the current directors), we are familiar with the structures and players in the promotional products industry. As for reeko, there was an opportunity to integrate a well-established brand with potential into our portfolio. And besides, the paper, office supplies and stationery industry and the promotional products industry are closely interlinked – you only have to consider the high proportion of writing instruments in the promotional products market. With reeko we have integrated another promising growth market into our group of companies. By taking over a large part of the team, continuity will be maintained. The reeko team is already being supported by competent staff from Carstensen. We see great synergy in this integration – not least through the Asian structure of Carstensen, which we believe can also be very helpful in the area of special requests in the future growth of the promotional product business within CIMEX.

How do you see the new corporate structure and the concrete cooperation with reeko Design? Reenald Koch and his team will remain the contact persons for their customers.
Reeko Design will remain an independent profit centre and will be supported by the Group in key areas. These include in particular the areas of sourcing and quality development, but also the IT, accounting and product management departments.

What synergies will emerge between the core business and the promotional products division?
Naturally we see most synergies in import where CIMEX has already worked together with reeko for a long time. The integration means shorter distances, more speed and much greater flexibility. This should already be apparent in the 2016 catalogue of reeko. In addition, there are products in the Group which are regularly sold to other customer groups that would also appeal to the promotional product industry. The product portfolio of CIMEX is no longer confined to the paper, office supplies and stationery industry. There are also approaches to include products from the garden and household segments. As a result of the higher volumes in the core business of CIMEX, new products from this area can be offered at very attractive prices. Moreover, of course, synergies arise in the fields of logistics, IT, accounting and human resources in such a situation.

Would you mind briefly introducing the management?
The management of Carstensen GmbH consists of the two managing directors, Thorsten Köhler and Martin Pancke, as well as two authorised signatories. Carstensen GmbH is a wholly owned subsidiary of Eurasia Statinvest GmbH, which also owns the majority of Stylex GmbH. While Martin Pancke takes care of branded companies and food retailers at Carstensen GmbH, I am responsible for the areas of e-commerce, promotional products and new business. Marco Reimann, a long-standing employee of the former reeko design GmbH with in-depth knowledge of the promotional products market, is responsible for operations at the Reeko Design division. Reenald Koch is still on board as an advisor to the CIMEX management. As we still see ourselves as a small, flexible unit without corporate structures, despite our company's size which has developed over the years, the areas of responsibility overlap considerably. <

The production and sewing facility of the company in Istanbul.

CEMERTAS PROMOTIONAL TEXTILES

A TAILOR FOR THE INDUSTRY

Textile production requires a lot of experience and understanding of the customer. The company Cemertas Promotional Textiles from Istanbul sees itself as a „tailor“ for its customers in the promotional product industry. The specialists will be presenting their products and services at the 54th PSI Trade Show.

As in all fields of business, the Far East also plays an important role for promotional products. In particular, the desire for ever cheaper products has focused the orientation towards products from the Far East. The question of whether the products produced are harmful to health and the way in which they are produced has become an important issue. The very fact that textile production cannot be carried out completely by machines, but that many workers are involved in the production process, makes it difficult to obtain a product of the desired quality. Many companies try to avoid this problem by carrying out spot checks on site. However, such inspections entail high costs. In addition, many shy away from travelling to the Far East due to the long distance and the major cultural differences.

SAMPLES BY OVERNIGHT EXPRESS

Therefore, many companies have decided to have their products produced in Turkey instead of the Far East. Based in Istanbul, Cemertas Tekstil guarantees a simple and inexpensive alternative for the production of promotional textiles. „We can produce our customers' samples within a few days and ship them by overnight express. If necessary, our own design department can assist in the preparation of size charts and models. If desired, samples can be repeatedly modified until they meet the customer's requirements“, explains Oktay Acar, sales manager at Cemertas Tekstil, adding:“ As we produce in Istanbul, we are less than three hours away by plane. If necessary, this enables the customer to be back home on the same day. We are happy to demonstrate our capabilities on site.“ Acar knows: „Textile production requires a lot of experience and understanding of the customer. And we see ourselves as a tailor for companies. When companies commission us to manufacture products, we know how important the brand and product safety are, and manufacture accordingly. We look forward to every call from companies that want cost-effective, high-quality production in Europe.“

VIVADEAU GMBH – “DIE STADTMEISTER”

EXPERTS FOR LOCAL FLAVOUR

A new face in the PSI network community is the company Vivadeau GmbH – “die stadtmeister” from Frankfurt. “die stadtmeister” specializes in the development, design and manufacture of products with a regional connection such as city souvenirs.

For local patriots, visitors and fans who want to express their allegiance to their city or region, “die stadtmeister” is always the right address. The smart products convey, for example, a piece of home in a foreign land, serving as a farewell present for expatriates or as souvenirs for local patriots. Thus, the offer is aimed at residents as well as at visitors and “people who have moved away”, who always want to have “their” favourite location close by. Designs that reflect the special individual features of a town or region are developed in collaboration with young artists. „die stadtmeister“ offers a wide range of diverse products – useful, practical, suitable for everyday use or simply beautiful – but always with a twinkle in the eye.

LOCAL PRODUCTS FOR THE INDUSTRY

The company was founded on 1 January 2010 and quickly developed into a renowned manufacturer in the field of high-quality regional giftware/city souvenirs. The products are sold throughout Germany, mainly through bookstores, gift item retail, department store chains, suppliers of office products and household goods, and stationery shops, including many renowned companies. The extensive range of products is now available to interested parties in the promotional product industry.

People from Cologne (also) love to drink from it.

This is what a collection of worldly wisdoms of „Swabian Basic Law“ look like.

The world view of people from Düsseldorf.

For this reason, „die stadtmeister“ will be exhibiting at the PSI Trade Show in 2016 for the first time because the demand for imaginative regional promotional products in this area is constantly growing.

NUMEROUS PRODUCT HIGHLIGHTS

Managing director Patrick Schneider: “die stadtmeister offers PSI members a wide range of more than 1,500 high-quality products with local flavour and city souvenirs. They are immediately available and can be ordered in small quantities to support promotional activities.” These include, inter alia, modern city souvenirs with the Skyline 20 of various cities. “In addition, we also offer other products that are dedicated to the culinary specialties of a particular region and are ideally suited to support events at which local colour or regional cuisine is to be communicated. We have the right product for each regionally-culinarily accentuated event – whether it be funnily decorated aprons, coasters, mugs, bibs, glass covers, boards, table decoration and accessories, bags or tea towels. The possibilities are virtually endless,” explains Patrick Schneider, adding: “Further product highlights can be found in the collection with ‘basic laws’ that combine the worldly wisdoms of each region in the appropriate dialect”.

A clear view with the lens cloth for Mannheim.

CUSTOM-MADE PRODUCTS: NO PROBLEM!

“Of course we also offer custom-made products in addition to our range of standard products. For manageable quantities, we can create a complete product portfolio for the desired city or region, from the design to the production. In addition, the products can be manufactured as customised products of a wide range of products in the desired design of the customers”, says Patrick Schneider. “A majority of the products is produced in Germany by “die stadtmeister” itself, which allows for a great deal of flexibility. This even enables small quantities to be delivered very quickly.” The company will be exhibiting its masterly products and services at this year‘s PSI at stand 12K09.

PSI 2016
Halls

First of all, let us allow the numbers to speak for themselves: 880 companies from 38 countries, 200 first-time exhibitors, 16,290 visitors from 80 countries – these are impressive figures from the last PSI. And the 54th edition once again offers the promotional products industry a broad arena filled with new product ideas, trends and innovations. From the wealth of new items, we present selected trade show innovations from the exhibitors in Halls 11 and 12 on the following pages.

The PSI has long since developed into an industry-wide forum in Europe and far beyond its borders, providing a stage upon which the promotional product literally comes alive in ever new forms. The large number of exhibitors from all branches and areas of the promotional products industry stands alongside an even larger number of products, whose wide-ranging promotional possibilities are presented in many different ways. The Product Guide, sorted by halls, features trade show novelties and is intended to inspire visitors to explore and discover the diversity of the PSI to their heart's content. The range offered in Halls 11 and 12 can certainly be described as colourful, attractive and international through and through. At their stands, a balanced mix of big, high-performing all-rounders and specialists, as well as a multitude of young and innovative businesses demonstrate the impressive spectrum of promotional product-based advertising. All relevant exhibitors of promotional textiles, whether it be clothing, caps, scarves and co., are represented at the PSI 2016 – many of the stands of international industry giants from this field can be found in these halls. And because the PSI is, without a doubt, the continental industry meeting place, many associations have set up fixed contact points in the International Area in Hall 12. What is more, the BPMA and FYVAR associations present exhibitors from Great Britain and Spain respectively in own pavilions. Visitors from Scandinavia can meet with partners and associations from their country in a relaxed environment in the ScandiBase in Hall 12. Last but not least, the HALLE13 Area is dedicated to creative minds. New exhibitors, inventors and young market participants once again present their imaginative and effective promotional innovations here. <

Moist coarse sea salt is becoming more and more popular among gourmets. However, with conventional grinders it is difficult to process, as the grains very soon get stuck in the thread. Two popular manually operated models from the French manufacturer's range have now been equipped with the exclusive new system: Molene and Oleron.

They also offer a spacious front pocket, which can be used to store travel utensils in easy reach. What is more, Eurostyle has developed a rucksack with a bundle of added features, perfectly suited for many leisure activities. SUSTAINABLE THANKS TO BAMBOO

Many people think bamboo is a type of wood, even though it is actually a plant from the sweet grass family – a fact which makes it a particularly attractive and environmentally friendly alternative to wood. Bamboo is considered one of the fastest growing plants on earth, so it doesn't contribute to deforestation. This also makes bamboo a very attractive and useful material to use for promotional products. The company Clipper has three practical and sustainable kitchen products made out of this material, including a serving tray, a cutting board and three kitchen utensils held in a stand. There are also two pens in Clipper's product line made out of bamboo: the Boston Bamboo, which was recently added to their product line, and Bamboo Write, Clipper's first bamboo pen. The company plans to pursue new ways of promoting sustainability in the future. It wants to add not only more bamboo products to its product line, but also other products made out of other clever alternatives to the materials currently being used.

IDEAS AND SHAPES OUT OF SOAP

Soap designs and nice scents trigger feelings of happiness and are always well-liked. Nothing works faster on the way people feel than the sense of smell, which is a good reason for using the hand-made organic soaps in special shapes as advertising mediums. The company Soap Opera has a hand-made natural soap in the shape of an electrical socket (EU standard 220V) on offer. This specially shaped soap is made in Germany with organic oils obtained from 100 per cent certified organically grown plants (kbA). The socket-shaped soap is ideal for using it as a giveaway at trade shows related to fields such as energy technology, renewable energies, solar and wind power stations. This special soap can also be used as a symbolic gift by local energy providers for retaining customer loyalty. It is also the perfect gift for energy providers, construction service providers, manufacturers of building services engineering and facility management service companies to use since they are all related to the topic of 'energy'. The soap can come in many different colours and scents for a minimum of 50 units.

SIMPLY WELL-DRESSED

Style can often signify modesty. The company 'uma' is convinced that there are quite a few great ideas from the world of fashion which can enhance the design of its writing instruments. The new FASHION model is one such example: This elegant retractable ballpoint pen has a straight, shiny shaft that comes only in black or white. The design of the shaft is intentionally plain and simple. The pen also features a straight, transparent and shiny clip available in 10 different colour variations, which contrasts with the simple design of the shaft in a stylish way. It gives FASHION that special 'something' and flair. The clip's design is sure to attract lots of attention as it looks like a clip used for ties, which highlights the personality and charm of the person wearing it. Isn't this an optimal platform for getting across sophisticated advertising messages? FASHION is particularly suitable for using digital printing, which means the entire shaft can be imprinted. Of course, advertising can be placed on the pen in other ways, too (e.g. on the clip). Long-lasting writing enjoyment is guaranteed with the tried and test uma TECH refill, the nickel silver tip, the tungsten carbide ball and the paste made according to the ISO standard.

CLUB CRAWATTE CREFELD

CUSTOMISED CORPORATE DESIGN

Ties and scarves have become firmly established in the product portfolios of the promotional products trade. At tie producer Club Crawatte Crefeld, a flair for fashion, creativity and technical perfection have produced distinctive accessories for over 40 years. Managing director Bernd Koch explained to us on site how ties are created, and what is important in marketing.

Companies from all industries gladly carry the label "Made in Germany" which stands for quality, optimum workmanship and a flawless supply chain. Club Crawatte Crefeld, one of the leading manufacturers of textile accessories for decades, is among those which rightly bear this name. CCC develops, manufactures and packages mainly at the traditional textile location in Krefeld. Much of the collection, but especially custom-made items in corporate design as well as small quantities, comes from the company's own production in the Rhineland, including one of the most modern jacquard weaving mills in Europe. Since the sixties, Club Crawatte Crefeld has made its mark as a specialist in individually designed custom-made items as well as products from the latest collections finished according to customer specifications. It is noteworthy that custom-made items are possible from just 30 pieces. The company thus qualifies as an ideal partner of the promotional products trade.

LONG TRADITION OF THE TEXTILE INDUSTRY

Silk weaving has a long tradition in the city of Krefeld, formerly Crefeld. In the 17th century, Mennonite religious refugees found refuge in Krefeld and gave the city an unprecedented heyday through its silk-weaving arts. Later, Frederick II promoted silk weaving, which laid the foundation for the development of a thriving textile industry. Krefeld became famous as the "Velvet and Silk City", where at times almost half the population depended on the silk industry. However, in the wake of the globalisation of the markets, business became increasingly difficult, and today there are only two mills in operation. Even today, stately villas bear witness to the former importance of this industry. A former weaving mill has even been transformed into an impressive residential complex with historical flair.

PRESTIGIOUS LABEL: CLUB CRAWATTE CREFELD

Ambiance GmbH, a competent production company, has long been operating under the umbrella of one of these last, efficient weaving mills. Likewise, the renowned label Club Crawatte Crefeld has been operating as a competent centre for custom-made items since the early 1990s. Registered as a trademark since 1966, CCC has been synonymous with tailor-made corporate design in the field of elegant textile accessories such as ties, scarves and shawls for resellers for over 40 years – thus also for the promotional products industry. Bernd Koch, managing director since 2002, has been decisive in helping to shape the company's progress since 1998. With a keen sense for the latest trends and an entrepreneurial vision, he and his team implement exciting projects on behalf of companies and organisations at the production facilities on site.

ATTRACTIVE, COMMERCIAL BUSINESS ACCESSORIES

"The target group for ties can be found in a business environment," explains Bernd Koch. He is firmly convinced that the offering of accessories individually manufactured in Germany greatly enriches the

A TIE IS CREATED

At Club Crawatte Crefeld, ties are mainly hand-made. This creates unique designs in first-class workmanship.

There is never a shortage of ideas: Four experienced, in-house designers create individually designed items in Krefeld.
At the weaving mill: Special designs are mainly manufactured using high-quality Jacquard woven patterns. After selecting the favoured design based on the concepts, the weaving program is created. The data is transmitted online to the German production site where the fabric is woven.

Here we can see the finished fabric which is now roughly cut.

product portfolio of the promotional products trade. That is why he supports the trade extensively in distribution and also offers to visit the customer together with the distributor. This enables the CCC team to fully illustrate all the facets of its products and services and to provide direct expert advice. "When we introduce our products separately, we can convey a higher quality of our accessories and put our portfolio impressively in the limelight," says Koch. Every eighteen months, CCC brings out a new collection which is also available online. Depending on the task and his budget, the customer can choose between a product from a particular collection, which he can have customised, and a product created in his own design.

EVERYTHING FROM A SINGLE SOURCE

During our visit at the company headquarters in Krefeld, Bernd Koch showed and explained the entire production process of a tie from the design concept to the cut, packaging and quality control. Strictly speaking, the existence of the tie begins even earlier – during weaving of the fabric. That is why the weaving mill was the first stop of our tour. Here we were able to see live how the high-quality jacquard fabrics are created from silk and other high-quality yarns that are processed in the sewing room. The fabrics woven here are the basis of the current fashion collections of a total of around 1,000 standard designs as well as custom designs implemented by in-house designers according to customer requirements. It is impressive how many individual work steps are necessary before a tie is completed. Particularly special and small orders are hand-finished – quickly, professionally and with know-how that has grown over decades.

SPECIAL PROJECTS AND SPONSORING

Bernd Koch presented several unusual projects that are particularly important to him: First of all, there is the vocational competition WorldSkills; CCC outfitted the German delegations and staff with ties and scarves. Initially, the company acted as a sponsor, and later the specially designed accessories were offered at favourable introductory prices. It was a similar case with the project for the German stem cell donor database. The project "Rett Elternhilfe" is a special case. Rett is a particularly tragic disease that can strike girls at the age of two years. Triggered by a gene defect, children can suffer sudden severe disabilities. "Health cannot be taken for granted. If you now have the opportunity to support great projects that offer help where it is needed, then you must not hesitate," emphasises Bernd Koch. Therefore Club Crawatte has been supporting the project since 2011 with donations and fundraising activities. Ties in a discreet design for the Rett charity day raise awareness of the charity organisation. Finally, our very own favourite item from the production at Crawatte Club: A large silk scarf with the motif of a painting by the artist Horst Kordes is a true firework of colours. It echoes the style and the fantasy worlds of Hundertwasser and is a real dream in silk. Whoever finds it too good to wear can have it framed. These examples show that Club Crawatte – and thus Bernd Koch – think ahead. Thinking outside the box, getting involved and supporting an important cause is not taken for granted anywhere as much as at the Krefeld-based company.

NEW CATALOGUE LAUNCHED

After relaunching its website at the beginning of the year, Krefeld-based Club Crawatte Crefeld has presented its new catalogue in time for the end-of-year business. It contains more than 100 ties, scarves and shawls on 36 pages. In order to ensure that the focus on diversity remains with the variety of products, like the website the catalogue is divided strictly according to colour schemes. "The feedback on our user-friendly website, whose clearly arranged Showroom has provided users with fresh ideas since January, was so positive that we have systematically continued the approach of colour worlds in our catalogue," says Bernd Koch. "It was important to keep both the clarity as well as an attractive visual language in mind in the design." The result is a catalogue which serves as an excellent working basis, but at the same time inspires and pleases the eye.

WERBEALM GROWING RAPIDLY

SUCCESSFULLY GO ROUND AGAIN

"Promotional products should be fun again!" Under this guiding principle, Simone Rosenstiel and Jürgen Gierl launched "WerbeAlm" (meaning "promotional alpine pasture") at the end of 2013, offering customers a choice of products from all the segments of the promotional products market, tailored in each case to the customer's company and its target groups.

The company's all-round concepts are intended to be above all "striking, creative and professional", thus making a statement on the promotional products market with fresh and distinctive touches. This philosophy seems to be having an effect, since there is cause for joy at WerbeAlm again in the second year of business. The ambitious goal of three hundred per cent growth has been achieved and for the coming business year, too, the diverse team is setting itself high goals: "It was no small risk when we stepped into the realm of the promotional products market in 2014. We were certainly familiar with the competition, but we also knew that we didn't want to follow in well-trodden footsteps. Today we know that it has paid off to go for the risk and create our own profile and above all a contemporary one," says Simone Rosenstiel.

HIGHLY MOTIVATED TEAM

A lot has happened in this "alpine pasture" in the past year. And the success proves this still young, but highly professional company to be right. They have now been able to establish a good reputation for themselves within the industry. Thus WerbeAlm not only stands for a high-quality and trendy range at attractive prices but it is above all the spirit of the WerbeAlm team that impresses many of the industry's top salespeople. The huge growth of the past year was only possible because the two owners appealed to the experts of the industry with what they were offering. "The sales department has fun visiting companies with a case full of outstanding promotional products and being able to present all the products the customers request there and then within a few minutes," explains Jürgen Gierl. "This is achieved through a highly motivated back-office team who sees it as their first priority to support the sales team and strengthen their work outside with the customer. A few weeks ago a call centre project was launched that supports the sales team on demand with appointments. At the beginning of 2016 the project is to transition out of the training phase and be incorporated into day-to-day business," he adds.

NEW CHARITY PARTNER

Furthermore, WerbeAlm has gained a strong cooperation partner in Plan International Deutschland. The world's largest aid organization that is known to many entrepreneurs is being supported as of this year through a charity product range to benefit a selected African aid project. On top of this, Simone Rosenstiel and Jürgen Gierl have taken on the sponsorship of two children and consider it their duty as entrepreneurs to share part of their profit with disadvantaged people. The success of this strong cooperation is a source of great joy. Simone Rosenstiel is currently working on an additional charity project that is also to be included in the range.

"IT HAS TO BE COMPATIBLE"

"Since we started we have had numerous enquiries from salespeople from all over Germany, but part of our success is also down to the fact that we look very carefully to see who is compatible with WerbeAlm," says Jürgen Gierl. "Our team is young and dynamic. Though 'young' here is not about age but about personality. We are young at heart and young in our thinking, we all want success and we love what we do," he stresses. This colourful mix of all kinds of different characters on the team has delighted the two WerbeAlm owners in all kinds of ways. Together they step into action as a powerful team.

NEW GROWTH TARGETED

"This time last year there were nine of us on the 'alpine pasture'. This year we are already a staff of 21 and in the coming year we would like to reach 30. We are looking Germany-wide for experienced salespeople from the industry who would fit in. We are also currently employing three trainees who are having a whole lot of fun working in the colourful world of promotional products," says Simone Rosenstiel. In January 2016, WerbeAlm will be moving into new, spacious premises. They will be needing the new space since WerbeAlm is going for growth again in the new year and is targeting an increase of a further hundred and fifty per cent. It will be interesting to watch the future development. <

POLE POSITION FOR SUSTAINABILITY

A lot is being said and written about sustainability. But more and more is being done, as well. Companies in the industry are at least realizing which way the wind is blowing, and committing themselves to sustainable principles. One practical example is Kahla porcelain. This Thuringian company gives the topic high priority and even says that sustainability wins the pole position.

This well-established manufacturer of porcelain has also given its sustainability strategy a name: "KAHLA pro Öko". With this strategy, the company clearly acknowledges the importance of sustainability. A green seal of quality on all products testifies to porcelain that has been tested for harmful substances and is made of natural raw ingredients. It is manufactured in Germany according to fair and socially acceptable standards. This means that KAHLA pledges to put its trust in sustainable production in its own country. At the same time, this secures around 300 jobs and 20 apprenticeships in Thuringia.

SUSTAINABILITY BEGINS AT HOME

Since its refounding after German reunification, KAHLA has invested 30 million euros in innovative production technologies to protect the environment. Hence production conserves resources, for one thing. For another, CO_2 emissions are reduced. "KAHLA pro Öko" further means that the company uses its own wells and saves millions of litres of drinking water by purifying and reusing industrial wastewater. The company's own photovoltaic installation also generates electric power from solar energy, which is then used for porcelain production. All of the packaging and advertising material is made from recycled and FSC paper. The vertical range of manufacture in Kahla, Thuringia, from raw materials to the final product, avoids superfluous transports. This means that emis-

Porcelain is a traditional material. For KAHLA, designer Barbara Schmidt has made it fit for the new millennium.

sions are also avoided. In October 2011, the company introduced its own environmental management system. Only one year later, KAHLA was certified as an environmentally compatible company in accordance with the globally recognized ISO 14001 standard. Since last year, KAHLA has been a member of the Thuringian sustainability convention Nachhaltigkeitsabkommen Thüringen (NAT), a network for sustainable business management.

FOCUS ON PEOPLE

The "pro Öko" sustainability strategy means more, though, since it obligates KAHLA to create socially acceptable working conditions. By providing practical help, the company champions the cause of seniors, work-life balance and the integration of people with disabilities. For this work, KAHLA was commended by the Thuringian Ministry for Social Affairs as early as 2005. Five years later followed the "Akzeptanz 2010" honorary certificate for outstanding commitment to enabling people with disabilities to participate in working life. Even the German Federal Employment Agency honoured KAHLA for successfully integrating people with disabilities. Another important aspect is the training and promotion of young talent at its site in Kahla, including partnerships with universities and close collaboration with the "Günther Raithel-Foundation", which is dedicated to promoting education, culture, science and research related to porcelain and table culture, and supports the involvement of young designers, artists and ceramicists.

WELL-WROUGHT, ECOLOGICALLY SOUND PORCELAIN

All this attention to sustainability began ten years ago, when the ÖKOPROFIT project got started in April 2005. The goal of this collaboration between local authorities and businesses was and still is to lower operating costs while at the same time conserving natural resources. In February 2009, the Thuringian porcelain manufacture presented its "KAHLA pro Öko" sustainability strategy, after already having implemented thirty ÖKOPROFIT projects. One of the many "KAHLA pro Öko" milestones was the TAO collection, the winner of a large number of "green" awards for its especially sustainable production, and the touch! Ornaments mug, which was awarded a rating of "very good" by ÖKO-TEST magazine. The "touch!" series, with its velvety soft surface, protects against heat and reduces noise. It is safe for dishwashers and microwaves, suitable for use with foods and above all, globally patented. Another innovation is the Magic Grip "silent porcelain". What makes this series so special is the integrated silicon foot that keeps it from slipping, reduces noise and protects sensitive surfaces from scratches. The Magic Grip is an intrinsic part of the tableware and is dishwasher safe, hygienic and suitable for use with foods.

THE THREAT OF COMING TO AN END AS A NEW BEGINNING

Twenty years ago, however, hardly anyone would have envisaged the successful interim result of 2015. In 1994, the long-established manufacturing company founded by Christian Eckardt in Kahla, Thuringia in 1844 was about to fold after going into receivership. However, salvation appeared in the form of an ex Rosenthal manager with a vision: Günther Raithel rebuilt the company as KAHLA/Thüringen GmbH. In doing so, he consistently relied on renewal from the outset. And in a big way, for it was not only a matter of the company itself, but the entire topic of German table culture came into focus. The stated aim was to establish KAHLA as an innovative porcelain brand with sustainable production in Germany and to create "porcelain for the senses" with added value for customers. With the designer Barbara Schmidt at his side, Raithel made the traditional material of porcelain fit for the new millennium. The reward for his pains has consisted in the more than ninety international design prizes KAHLA has since been awarded for its innovative product design, and its intelligent and ecological concepts. Customers from sixty countries appreciate multifunctional KAHLA products for households, catering and the hotel business, as well as individual promotional porcelain for corporate customers. By its own admission, the Raithel family today heads one of the most modern porcelain companies in Europe. Ten years ago, the founder transferred the management of the company to his son, Holger Raithel.

The "silent porcelain" Magic Grip is an innovation.

AIMING AT SUCCESS FOR GENERATIONS TO COME

KAHLA/Thüringen Porzellan GmbH has only been in existence in its present form for twenty years. Nonetheless this porcelain manufacturer is a long-established enterprise with roots going back to 1844. At that time, Christian Eckardt founded Porzellanfabrik Kahla, where the first porcelain was fired on October 23 of the same year. Fifty years later, Porzellanfabrik Kahla was one of the biggest porcelain manufacturers in Germany, annexing porcelain factories in Arzberg, Hutschenreuther and Schönwald, among others. After the end of the Second World War, it first became a Soviet corporation and then a nationally owned company in the GDR in 1952, changing to VEB Feinkeramik in 1979. At this time, 18,000 people were employed in 17 porcelain factories. After privatization by the Treuhand privatization agency in 1991 and bankruptcy two years later, KAHLA/Thüringen Porzellan GmbH was re-established in 1994. This was followed by a change in the business strategy. In 1995 KAHLA hotel porcelain was launched, joined in 1997 by the promotional products division "ARTVERTISING by KAHLA". One year later, the "Update" concept brought a breakthrough. There followed a large number of design prizes – ninety so far. In 2014 KAHLA, which has been an entirely family-run enterprise since 2000, celebrated its 170 year anniversary "Made in Germany". And this story is intended to go on for a long time, since the company is aiming at success for years and generations to come. <

MICHAEL SCHIFFER

INNOVATIVE POWER FOR THE INDUSTRY

He is the fourth generation to helm the company that today presents itself as a modern manufacturing firm with the experience and continuity of more than nine decades and is characterised by values such as innovation, employee orientation, quality and sustainability, with a strong focus on serving customers. "We want to think ahead for our customers," is how Michael Schiffer puts it, whose company, Michael Schiffer Promotion, has been exclusively offering the versatile and promotionally powerful, high-quality product program of the Post-it® brand to the European promotional products trade since 1 May 2013, combined with the comprehensive services of its group of companies.

Michael Schiffer, owner and managing director of the four-tiered group of companies, welcomes us at company headquarters in Rheinberg near Duisburg on the lower Rhine. He embodies the fourth generation of a typical mid-size family enterprise. Since being founded in 1925, each generation remained true to the locality. This continuity is one of the cornerstones in the remarkable company history, which began with a printing press in the laundry room of his great-grandfather Michael, after whom he is named. His grandfather, Karl, led the company through the Second World War, after which his father, Karlmichael, gradually grew the company from a rather artisanal printing operation into a modern industrial enterprise. Since 2001, Michael Schiffer has been running the business on his own, after managing it together with his father for three years. Yet it was not always taken for granted that he would carry on the family tradition.

PROBATIONARY PERIOD AND DECISION-MAKING PHASE

Although the current head of the company, who was born in 1969, practically grew up with his father's company and consequently served as a printer's apprentice in Austria after finishing school, this was followed, as he puts it, by a "probationary period and decision-making phase", during which "the affinity, expertise, and ability to manage a company" evolved step by step. After serving in the military, his path led him by way of four semesters of business administration in Ingolstadt first to the USA on a scholarship, where he got his bachelor's degree at a Jesuit college in New Jersey and his MBA in Boston. He frequently worked between and during his studies, however, including in an advertising agency or sometimes as stockbroker. "It was always important to me to keep in touch with the practical side of things," Michael Schiffer emphasizes in our talk. After his time abroad, he returned to his father's business in 1998, but at first, there was still the question of whether he would not prefer to explore career opportunities in America.

RESPECT AND TRUST

Yet in the end, the time spent together with his father led him to decide to take over the company after all. "I profited quite a bit from this period, which was characterized by great mutual respect and trust. For instance, I was quickly included in decision-making processes. My father entrusted me with the responsibility for marketing and distribution, while he took care of the technical aspects," Michael Schiffer reports. Then in 2001, his father retired with a clear conscience and gave the reins entirely to his son. "However, we still get along very well with each other. Although he has since kept out of the operative business, my father still serves as a welcome sparring partner in things related to the company. In addition, he plans and implements renovation and building projects with me. He has fun and I am very grateful for his help. A great set-up, and I hope it stays that way for a long time to come."

IMPORTANT VALUES

Under Michael Schiffer's management, the company has continued to grow, and is now a printing and production operation with around 2,000 employees (with a high level of technical knowledge in their respective specialties) and approximately 20,000 square metres of built-up area. As recently as 2014, the storage and production space was expanded by 3,000 square metres. "Despite all the growth, it is still important to us to keep up the family character of the company," accentuates Schiffer, who knows every one of his employees by name. "We also want to continue exploiting the advantages an owner-operated company has over a corporation. Our employees share varied areas of responsibility and are included in decision-making processes. Each one can contribute their ideas and suggestions for improvement. Thus we generate the best for our further development and orientation from the sum of all our ideas by means of an annual goal planning process," explains Schiffer, for whom employee orientation is a "very important value", ranking right behind customer orientation. "Everyone in our company knows that customers take first priority. After all, we would be nothing without our customers," is the credo of the managing director, which reveals a clear guiding principle.

CONSTANTLY ON COURSE FOR INNOVATION

The vision behind this is that "we want to be the most innovative manufacturer of paper-based and electronic solutions for the communication, promotion, and organisation in European companies." This leads to the mission, which is "we want to go improve corporate communication with customers and help make their organisational procedures more efficient. We achieve this by developing, producing and distributing highly innovative products and services – in connection with highly automated workflow solutions." This sounds incredibly ambitious, but corresponds to the aspirations which have so far fed the company's success. "Constant innovation is our challenge," says Michael Schiffer, specifying that "this means constantly developing new products and optimising the ones we already have." These aspirations are bearing fruit. Along with growing customer satisfaction, winning the 2011 Innovation Prize of the German Print and Media Awards (also known as the "Oscar of the Print Industry") is an outward sign that the company is on the right course. "And we want to stay on course for innovation," Schiffer confirms, thereby setting clear accents on quality and service.

SUSTAINABILITY A VALUE TO LIVE BY

Another important part of the company philosophy – apart from values such as innovation (which is constantly being externally certified), employee orientation, and quality – is sustainability, which runs through all levels of the manufacturing operation and is implemented in an exemplary manner. "Here we have been doing a lot for a long time. For instance, we save and protect resources by means of heat insulation and recovery. Our printing process is climate neutral, we obtain a large portion of our electricity form our own photovoltaic installations, measure all emissions and

That is why we also welcome and support the PSI’s Sustainability Initiative.”

POST-IT® – IDEAS FOR POWERFUL ADVERTISING MOMENTS

Within the group of companies, the Michael Schiffer Promotion division is devoted entirely to the needs of the promotional products industry. And the industry also benefits from the competence and expertise of the other corporate divisions, michael schiffer – print & kommunikation (technically sophisticated printing and finishing solutions), schagen+eschen –specialists for perfect mailings (full-service provider for direct mailing services) and SmartCom – medienIT and digital services. Michael Schiffer Promotion arose from the collaboration with the technology corporation 3M – the inventor of the sticky note. In 2009, 3M chose the Rheinberg-based company from ten competitors bidding for a contract to print and process Post-it® products for the promotional products industry. Decisive here were the high level of innovative power and efficiently interlinked processes of Michael Schiffer Promotion. “Our other qualities in the areas of marketing and distribution were apparently so convincing that 3M further intensified the collaboration with us in 2012 and entrusted us with Europe-wide exclusive distribution of the entire Post-it® promotional products portfolio,” says Michael Schiffer. Since 1 May 2013, the promotional products industry now has the entire variety of the Post-it® brand product range and all related services at its disposal from a single source.

EVERYTHING FOR THE CUSTOMER

“Responsibility toward our partners in the promotional products trade and trusting cooperation with them are the focus of our services,” says Michael Schiffer. The great store of experience, optimal workflow, in-depth professional and technical knowledge, efficiency and flexibility, as well as prompt reaction times at a constant high level of quality benefit the partners. “And through our efforts to constantly create ideal solutions, we get together as early as possible with our customers to sound out as many advantages of the brand-name product as possible.” The related Post-it® all-inclusive promise comprises all-round customer care, including free sample services and “the best on-time deliveries, even during the peak season,” Schiffer emphasizes. The creative Post-it® product range leaves nothing to be desired in its area and proves to be full of variety and ideas, attractive, and of high promotional impact. Its advertising is always likeable, extremely efficient and is used over and over again for all target groups and promotional occasions. All in all, "Printed Post-it® notes, with all their creative variations, are an excellent marketing communication tool that can be used for nearly unlimited purposes, showing off the advertising message in the best possible, targeted manner and supporting the image of the advertiser with the qualities of a strong brand," is how Michael Schiffer sums it all up.

POST-IT® GOES DIGITAL

For the 54th PSI, this innovative company is keeping a brand-new Post-it® premiere at the ready at its stand in Hall 11 (stand no. 11D74). On this matter, Michael Schiffer says, "The time has come: The next generation of clever product solutions from Post-it® Promotional Products connects the versatile brand ambassador directly to customers' smartphones. You might say 'from offline to online'. Michael Schiffer Promotion will be offering a large number of solutions under the heading "Post-it® connect" to enable advertisers to place their latest content interactively on the mobile terminals of their target groups. Here the now rather outdated USB technology is being simply skipped over, since communication nowadays is nothing if not mobile. And that is why it is important to be present on customers' mobile terminals. "Post-it® connect SoftCover" will be premiered as a PSI First Product at this year's leading trade show in Düsseldorf. Visitors can look forward to it – for this new product opens up whole new dimensions for advertisers when it comes to updating their messages and building up relationships with their target groups." <

A MAGNETIC BOOKMARK

Global Innovations has an innovative way of using bookmarks as advertising mediums. The patented magnetic bookmark comes with a carrier board, which can feature large advertisements placed on both sides. The bookmark is laminated which prevents it from detaching from the card, which means the product can also be put into envelopes using inserting systems. The bookmark comes with two built-in magnets and can be easily taken off the carrier board so that it is ready to be placed at the right spot in your book. A minimum order of 1,000 units is required.

A DIGITAL TIME MANAGER

The calendar manufacturer 'terminic' has released a digital three-month calendar in the form of a calendar management app. Terminic also places a lot of importance on having a precise and clearly-arranged calendar that is easy to use and features an extra-large space for your planning needs – just like traditional print versions do. The default view shows the previous, current and following month displayed under each other. The current day is indicated by a red frame. The portable three-month calendar enables you to organise your appointments individually and also offers you an overview of the year with a zoom function and an innovative search function. What is more, it has a built-in calendar with an overview of the different official national holidays and the bank holidays in individual German states. You have the option of having them indicated in colour in the year overview. In addition to selecting the language for your calendar, you can also select a country-specific version, which indicates the bank holidays for a particular country. With this digital calendar you will have a clearly-presented overview of your day, even if there are several full-day appointments running parallel to each other.

VISIT THE TRADE SHOW CAREFREE THANKS TO ZTV

The carefree tour of the trade show in the truest sense of the word is being offered again this year by the PSI Shipping Station. In Hall 9, 9L52 the PSI partner and logistics expert ZTV from Krefeld will again be taking care of packing and shipment of product samples and catalogues on special terms. There is no easier or more convenient way to deliver the materials gathered at the trade show to the local offices of the promotional product professionals. <

BOOKING EARLY PAYS OFF

Think today about tomorrow. This also applies to participating at the PSI Trade Show. This includes ensuring that all exhibitors receive Early Booker terms for the PSI 2017. Specifically, this means:

Whoever wants to reserve his PSI 2016 stand area once again for 2017 can do so until 6 pm on 14 January 2016. Reserving another stand space will be possible as of 15 January 2016, 8 am. On this day, exhibitors can reserve their preferred stand area with the PSI team in the rebooking office in Hall 10.

In addition, booking early pays off in the truest sense of the word because it guarantees exhibitors a discount of up to 5 euros on the rental fee per square metre applicable in 2016. This offer ends on the last day of the trade show (15 January 2016). Thereafter, only the regular rental fees shall apply. Incidentally, those who opt to rebook do not take any risks. Exhibitors will not receive an official stand confirmation from the PSI until the end of March 2016 and, if desired, the booking can be cancelled free of charge. If the registration is not cancelled, the exhibitor will receive a trade show invoice in September 2016. <

TRAVEL CHEAPLY TO PSI 2016

PSI 2016 will start in just over a few days from now. On Wednesday, 13 January 2016, the leading European Trade Show of the promotional product industry will be opened officially at 10 a. m. The general opening hours on the three trade show days are:

Wednesday, 13 January 2016: 9.00 am – 6.00 pm
Thursday, 14 January 2016: 9.00 am – 6.00 pm
Friday, 15 January 2016: 9.00 am – 4.00 pm.

Participants who plan their travel and stay can benefit from the concessions available here from the PSI partners Lufthansa and Deutsche Bahn. There are also discounts for rooms at PSI partner hotels.

- Lufthansa is offering discounts on their flights through the cooperation with PSI for PSI 2016. Further information is available at http://www.psi-messe.de/flugzeug_323.html
- Through the cooperation with Deutsche Bahn, there are discounted tickets in combination with the event ticket for those travelling by train within Germany. FIT FOR ADVERTISING

The topics of the product range of our February issue are active and trendy. Recreational activities associated with sport and leisure are almost a ten a penny. The new realms of experience require matching accessories, including in the booming areas of sports and leisure clothing. And promotional products connected with recreation and sports are always in season. Popular sporting events such as this year's European Football Championship serve as strong promotional engines and certainly also provide noticeable impulses for the promotional product industry. That is why we have expanded this subject area to include "merchandise". Theme pool no. 2 of this edition presents promotionally effective "Calendars, Watches and Measuring Instruments".
Please now give some consideration to the product topic of the March issue with the thematic groups of "Fashion, Caps and Accessories" as well as "Bags, Luggage and Travel" and send your product presentations (image and text) by no later than 15 January 2016 to: Edit Line GmbH, Redaktion PSI Journal, e-mail hoechemer@edit-line.de. <

WONDERFUL WORLD OF PROMOTIONAL PRODUCTS

On 13 January 2016, the doors of the PSI will open for the 54th time. For three days, the continental world of promotional products will revolve around the trade show axis in Düsseldorf and once again present the wonderful variety of representational advertising. Professionals from manufacturers, suppliers and distributors all come together to pave the way for a new, successful promotional year. The organisers of the PSI Institute have again played their part in creating an optimal presentation stage for the promotional product and have organised numerous activities and services. <

CONVINCING NEW IDEAS

When is a promotional product a good promotional product? When it is tailored to the target group and hits the mark. If it also has to be unusual and surprising, so much the better. So why not a cosmetic brush? Proving that this works and that the concept is successful is demonstrated by the example of Barbara Hofmann Cosmetic Pinsel GmbH. We will be introducing the company and its lines for the industry in our next issue. <

Das INNOVATIONS-FORUM – von der Idee in den Markt, aber wie? Was verbindet Unternehmer, Studenten, Wissenschaftler, Entwickler, Künstler, Forscher, Designer miteinander? Der Drang, manche Dinge einfach besser oder neu zu machen! Das Magazin befasst sich mit allen Stufen des Innovationsprozesses von der Ideenfindung bis zur Vermarktung. Das Magazin versteht sich als offene Plattform für Alle, die mit diesen Themen verbunden sind. In Kooperation mit der Erfindermesse Nürnberg und der PSI entwickelt das IF neue Formate, um Erfindungen zu präsentieren, so das Treibhaus der Ideen ®, das unter anderem die brachliegenden Potenziale aus den Schubladen der Erfinder holt.

INNOVATIONS-FORUM - how to go from an idea to a market?
What is the connecting link between entrepeneur, student, scientist, developer, artist, designer? It is the mission to make things better or new! That is one of the conditions to create an invention! The magazine deals with all steps of the innovation process from the creation of ideas to commercialization. The magazine is a platform for all those in touch with those topics. The magazine developes new formats for the presentation of inventions in cooperation with the Nuremberg invention exhibition and PSI. One of this is the Greenhouse of Ideas ® to disclose the unused ideas hidden in the inventors cabinets.

With over 250 companies, the members of PPP represent approximately 75% of the Dutch promotional product market. PPP strives for further enhancement of professionalizing our business. We therefore provide a high level educational program (the PPP Academy) which is recognized by more and more companies and end-users. PPP offers a certification program to its members as well. PPP has a members-benefits program, providing tools like general terms for members, low-priced airline tickets, financial services, etc. Together with several stakeholders, also on European scale, we strive to set the standards for a professional promotional products market. For this reasons we started recently a promotional campaign to convince the market of the effectiveness of promotional products.

Some are intended to be provocative and striking, while others are more conservative and subtle – our writing instruments not only have to write well, they also have to appear authentic. They have to offer something new and fresh time and again. 250 employees at our headquarters in Switzerland and in eight branch offices around the globe work to ensure that we achieve just that in every order. Our team works tirelessly to produce ballpoint pens so good that they can represent the most demanding of brands credibly and sustainably. For us, writing and advertising go hand in hand.
